ACHS students above average in state testing

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch Community High School fared average or above state scores in all of the categories being tested.

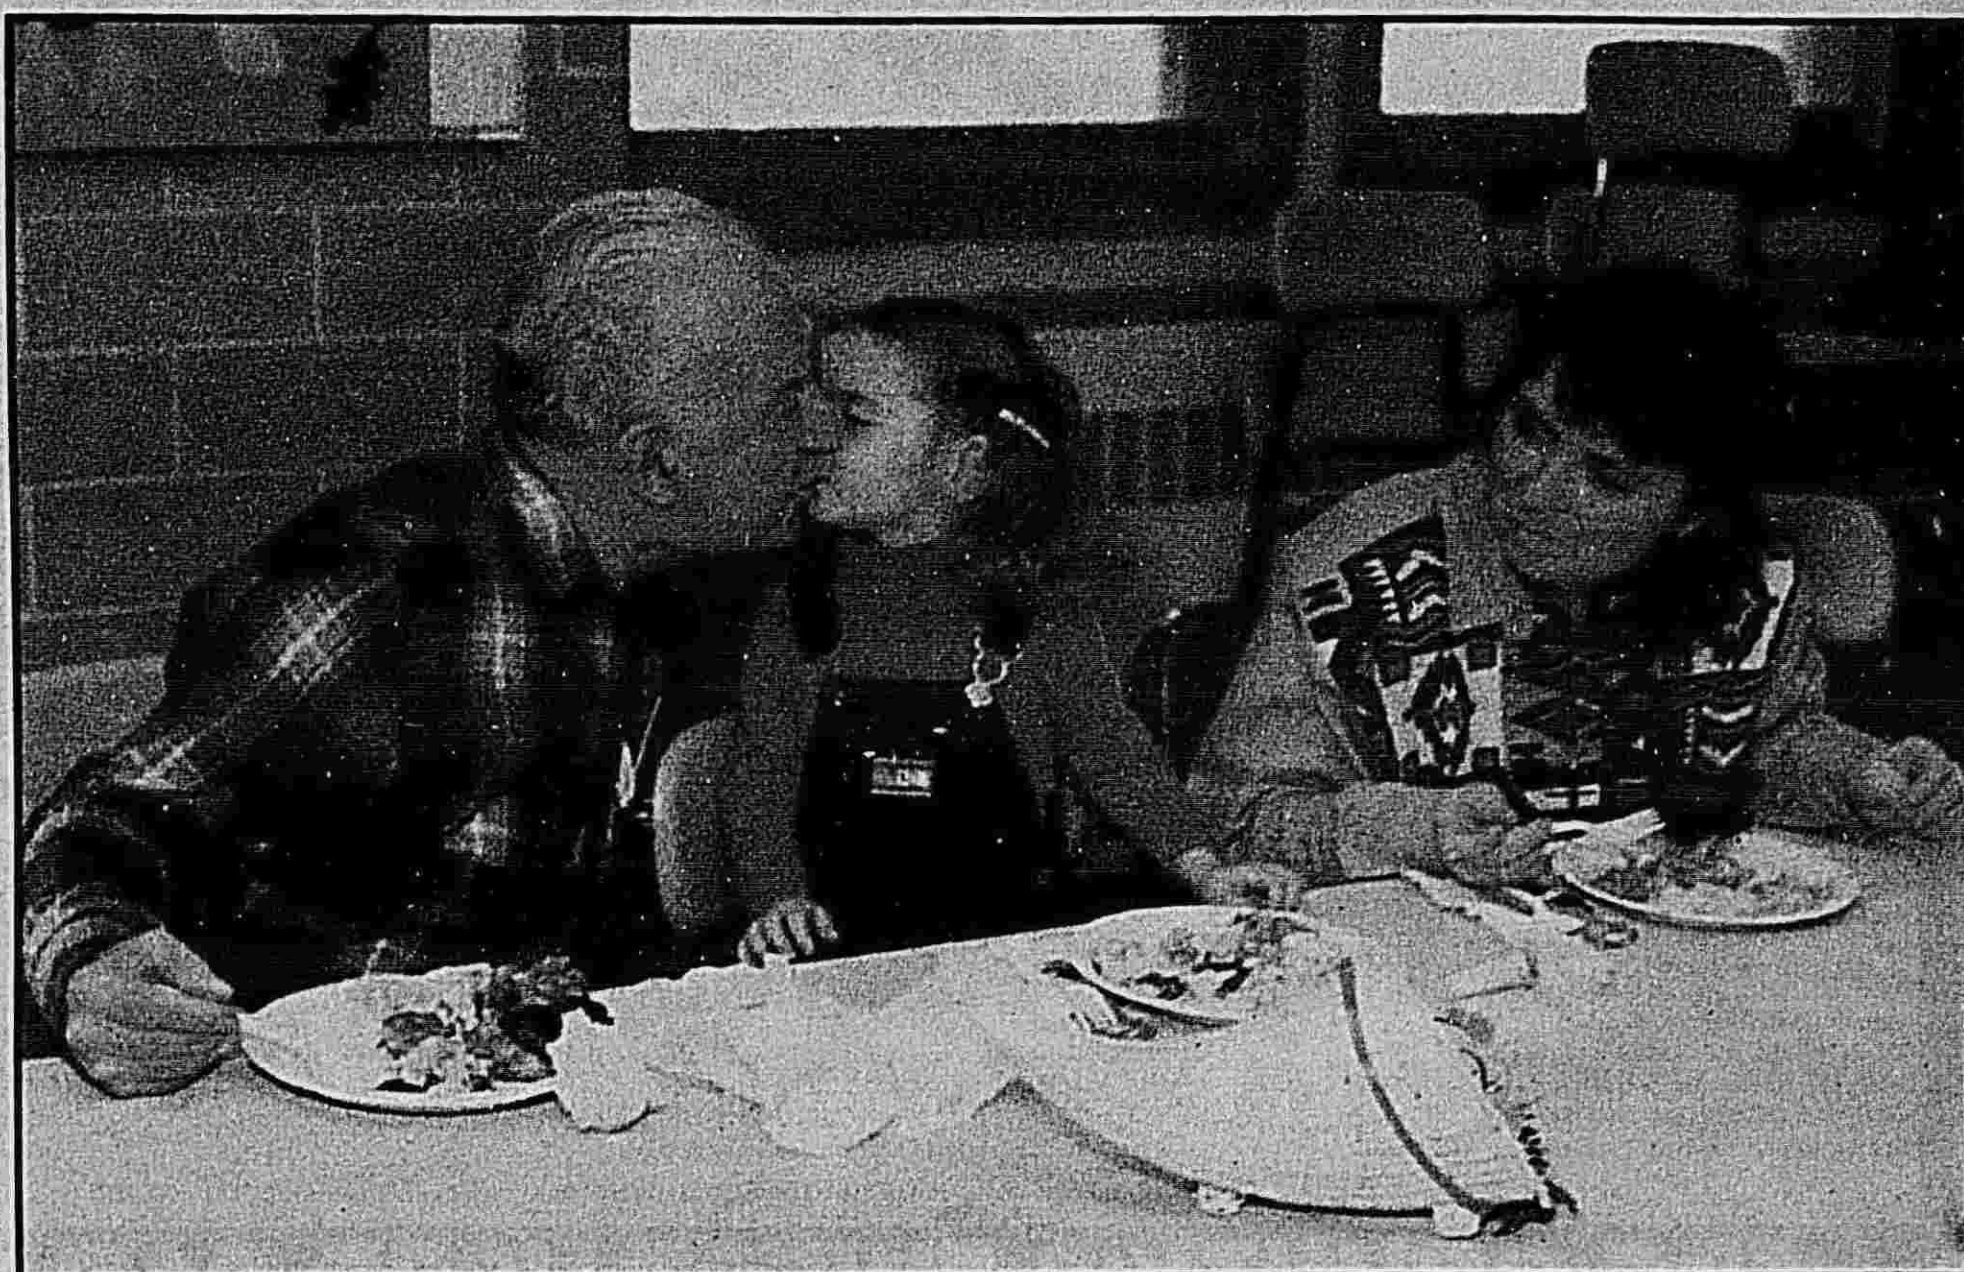

There were some decreases in the scores from the Illinois Goal Assessment Program (IGAP) from last year but they were within the statistical band of scores. The areas which were the highest included science, math and writing. The reading, math and writing tests are from 10th-grade students, and the science and social studies tests were given to 11th-grade students.

"I think it indicates the students at Antioch are doing better than state average and about where I would expect them to be," Superintendent Dr. Robert Schley said. "It indicates the feeder schools are doing an excellent job of preparing the students for high school as well as our teachers are doing a good job."

The writing average was again above state scores. The Antioch score was 26.9, 1.8 points higher than the state average. The math score was at 271, 21 points above the state score. The science score of 274 was 24 greater than the state mean.

Also slightly above state scores was the reading score, 15 points higher than the state average. In social sciences, Antioch students averaged 14 points ahead of the state score.

The warning sign in these scores is that they are all below last year's scores, especially in math and reading. The math score was 299 last year compared with 271 this year. The reading score dropped 14 points this year. The science score has been dropping from a high of 294 in 1991 (Continued on page 10)

Speaker warns of hidden drug problem

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch has a drug problem, it's ignorance and lack of understanding of drugs by residents that keeps the problem hidden and not attacked by the community.

According to speaker Milton Creagh, many Americans are ignorant about drugs and misunderstand where the problems lie. He asked them to name three over-the-counter items that children are using today and none of the audience of about 40 people knew what they were.

An example is popin which is inhaling aerosol sprays. Another is pills used for asthma and another is caffeine pills. Most of these are sold in convenience stores and consumed in massive quantities by children.

"Six kids are in comas in Wisconsin from popin in the last three months," Creagh said. "You're right next to Wisconsin so I'd be very concerned."

Creagh said many Americans believe most of the drugs are consumed by black, inner city and low income youths. The truth is most of the drugs are taken by white, suburban and middle class people.

"If you have one student doing dope or a child with an alcoholic parent you have a problem. Because if there is no one who is black or Hispanic in the community

'People have to get mad and involved and do something about it.'

people have the idea there is not a drug problem. Those who think they need to hear it least probably need to hear it the most," Creagh said.

Creagh is a drug prevention speaker who spoke to over a half-million people last year in 38 states and 7 countries. He has been given the key to the city of Memphis, was awarded a congressional proclamation in 1989 and earned the 1991 FBI Director's Community Leadership Award.

Creagh presented some shocking facts about drugs many don't even realize. About 60 percent of all the illegal drugs consumed are consumed in the United States, 70 percent of the drugs taken are by adults, one-third of American workers know of drug deals going down in the workplace.

Creagh also presented the audience with five questions he asked Antioch middle school students regarding their age group. Almost all the kids said they knew someone who smoked, 99 percent knew someone who drank alcohol, about 50 percent of the sixth-graders and 65 percent of the eighth-graders said they knew someone who smoked marijuana, more raised their hand when speed was mentioned and about 70 said they had a friend or a family member with a drug or alcohol problem (Continued on page 10)

Villages asked to join private recycling efforts

WAUCONDA—Village officials are supporting the development of privately owned processing facilities to handle recyclables and are asking other member communities of the Solid Waste Agency of Lake County to join them. The resolution comes just two weeks before SWALCO members are scheduled to vote on the development of a privately or publicly owned and financed facility to handle recyclables in Lake County. Trustee Bruce Christensen said a private facility would cost approximately one-third as much as what SWALCO has estimated the publicly owned facility to cost, with no cost to taxpayers. The SWALCO board, made up of representatives from 36 member communities, is scheduled to vote Dec. 3.

Area land owners object to Route 45 plan impact

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

More than 200 people attended six hours of hearings to learn of proposed improvements to Route 45.

The residents included land owners who border Route 45 and whose property may be taken in a right-of-way acquisition. The entire project, from Route 176 to Route 132, is expected to cost $40 million.

"I am pleased to see an arterial like Route 45 is being updated, but I am concerned about land acquisition," Mary Erlenborn of Millburn said.

Ronald Otrembiak of Wildwood lives at Indian Trail and Route 45. He was concerned about installation of medians which may hinder business traffic.

"It will go through our living room window," Lindo Walter, who has lived in the Wedges Corners area for 35 years, said.

IDOT is proposing a series of medians and traffic signals. Tuesday's meeting was the second with another planned next year.

The Knowles-Grand and Route 132 area is of particular concern to Third Lake village officials.

"We are concerned about access to our

New owners seek to reduce traffic congestion

MUNDELEIN—The addition of a stoplight on Rte. 45 at Towline Square is expected to improve traffic flow and reduce the number of accidents at the busy location. The village board has authorized Mayor Marilyn Sindles to add her name to a letter from IDOT to the property owners. The signal will be maintained by Apex Investments.

Tree lighting will kick off holiday season

LIBERTYVILLE—Christmastime in Libertyville will begin at 7 p.m. Nov. 26 with "Holiday on the Square" in Cook Park. After a musical presentation by combined area choirs, Mayor Jo Ann Eckmann will throw the switch to light the tree and the park. The Libertyville-Mundelein Historical Society will open the Ansel B. Cook House for a "Victorian Christmas," and Libertyville will celebrate a "Dickens of a Holiday" every Saturday through Dec. 18 with carriage rides and refreshments in the park.

Speaker alerts people to unknown drugs

ANTIOCH—Milton Creagh, a national speaker on drug abuse, warned parents of drugs over the counter kids are abusing. He said high on the list are caffeine stimulants, asthma pills and inhaling aerosol sprays as leading ways kids are getting high on legal substances. He said parents need to get more involved with their kids and with each other to focus on problems. He said most of these products are readily available and people need to talk to business owners who engage in selling those products.

Holiday spirit on the menu at area restaurant

VERNON HILLS—The needy in Vernon Township will be the guests of the Peacock Restaurant this Thanksgiving. Instead of roast turkey there will be Tandoori chicken or Murg (chicken) curry, Aloo Gobi Masala instead of sweet potatoes, and Kher rice pudding instead of pumpkin pie. Village trustee Thom Koch will be behind the wheel of a shuttle buss taking diners from St. Mary of Vernon to the restaurant in Rivertree Court.

commercial areas," trustee Bev Remington said.

According to an IDOT video presentation, the intersection at Routes 132 and 45 is unsafe in part due to large entrances for surrounding businesses.

Additional right-of-way will be needed at both sides of Route 45. IDOT is working with the Lake County Stormwater Management Agency.

The first segment of improvements would be from Route 176 to the Wisconsin-Central railroad structure; the second from the structure to Arbor Boulevard; the third from Arbor to Brae Loch Road and the fourth from Brae Loch to Route 45.

In the southern end, signals would be installed at Dunbar Road, Winchester Road, Peterson Road and Casey Road.

In the section to Brae Loch Road, a 30 foot grass median would be installed and new signals at Center-Deerpath and Brae Loch.

The Knowles Road, Sunshine Avenue area would be improved with a 90-degree angle and traffic light.

Two acres of wetland would be disturbed by the improvements, meaning three acres must be replaced.

Churchill supports Helander for clerk

LAKE COUNTY—"I'm ecstatic that we have a candidate of this quality," State Representative Robert Churchill of the 62nd district said regarding the endorsement of Willard Helander for Lake County Clerk. Last week the Lake County Republican Party in which Churchill is the chairman, chose Helander, longtime attorney to run for the position. Churchill said that she is the only candidate so far. The state representative called Helander "a true professional, who's life has been dedicated to public service."

Bus driver charged in sex abuse case

GRAYSLAKE—Robert A. Calter of Grayslake has been charged with sexually assaulting teens. Calter works as a bus driver for Grayslake Community High School. Ray Novak, superintendent, said Calter is on paid leave pending the investigation. The attacks allegedly occurred in the Spring Grove area. Calter is charged with three counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse. The case was investigated by McHenry County States Attorney's office.

Dist. 96 report cards show students excelling

BUFFALO GROVE—Results from the Illinois Goal Assessment Plan conducted this past spring indicate students attending Kildeer Countryside School District 96 are well ahead of their peers across the state. "The results are consistent with very good scores that we have had in the past," said Superintendent David T. Willard.

Trial date set in Savage triple murder case

WAUCONDA—A Lake County Judge set a trial date for Gail Savage, the Wauconda woman accused of killing her three infants over a three year period ending this summer. The trial will start Feb. 14, 1994, with the next court hearing scheduled for Nov. 30 where the defense is scheduled to make several motions, said Lake County Assistant States Attorney Claudia Kasten. Savage has remained in the Lake County Jail since her arrest in early September in the first-degree murders of her three infants. Authorities have testified Savage had confessed to smothering the babies with a blanket, but defense attorney Robert Hauser will attempt to prove they died of natural causes.

Christian hypocrites?

To the Vietnam vet who spoke about abortion last week and about Christians. I understand your opinion about Christians being hypocrites. Yes, there are a lot of Christians who appear to be hypocrites. However, there is stepping stones about being a Christian and I hope one day you'll learn this. I didn't ask to become a Christian, I just prayed and asked God to guide me and he brought a miracle into my life that changed me forever. I sincerely hope one day you'll be blessed with some peace.

Firefighter fights back

Hi. This is to the person from "Driving Dangers" in the Nov. 12 issue. If you want to increase your taxes and then the Lake

Villa Fire Department can hire full time firefighters, you won't have to worry about the volunteer firefighters responding to the station for calls. Their quick response to save your life someday. I'm a full time firefighter in a nearby town, and I'm getting pretty tired of you guys picking on Lake Villa. They have an excellent department. Thank you.

Special cop

I just want you to know everyone is always picking on cops. I just took my two kids to Lambs Farm for that haunted house over Halloween and when I got there, it was freezing cold temperatures, but what do I see out there, donating his time? I see a Round Lake Park police officer donating his time in the freezing weather amusing the kids and he didn't get any pay. He just did it because he felt like donating his time on a Saturday night. And I think that is pretty cool and that people should know. I know this guy is special because he gave up a Saturday night in freezing temperatures to work at their ghost train. And my kids like him. He played a funny, spooky monster. I just think that's pretty neat and I think he should get a mention for giving up his time. Thank you very much.

Thank you, firemen

I'd like to voice my opinion on volunteer fire departments. In the past weeks, I've read many negative opinions - too many I think. So I'm going to voice a positive opinion for a much needed change. Volunteer firemen donate their time, their energy and their lives to protect the community in which they live. It doesn't matter if they're sound asleep or at their son or daughters birthday party or at Thanksgiving dinner. When they get the call to get somebody out of a wrecked car or stop a house from burning, they're there at the scene giving 100 percent with no questions asked or complaints made. I know stories of volunteer firemen running into a burning building to save a pet or a little girls is crying for or working in the midst of broken electrical wires to save a mom, a dad or a grandchild, so they can live to see their loved ones again. They spend hours, days and nights searching for that last drowning victim in freezing cold water while we're all at home watching television with our families. My smoke alarm went off once and the volunteer firemen were at my door inside of 6 minutes at 3:30 in the morning. Ready and willing to run, not walk into whatever situation and saved my life and my home. I drive in this community every day some times all day with my job and never felt in danger with vehicles that have volunteer fire department stickers in their windows. I've lived in this area my entire life and I go to sleep every night feeling safe and confident that if there should be a problem with my house and I need to call 9-1-1 that the firemen in my town will handle any trouble there might be. I want to know how many of you out there are reading this and are willing to put you life on the line 2,3 maybe 4 times a day for $7 or $8? My guess is not too many. The next

Paddock's friends supportive despite guilty ruling

Friends, students and colleagues of Cheryl Smith Paddock maintain the long-time Grayslake Community High School teacher and coach contributed much to the community despite the guilty verdict in the sexual abuse case.

"I am disappointed by the jury's verdict. There is a great deal of support for her. Her accomplishments of 20 years should not be dismissed by one misguided person. She is a solid person at the high school and the community," Doug Dunbar said.

Dunbar, a 22-year friend of Paddock, helped organize a legal defense fund for Paddock and said response was positive. Dunbar said he believes Paddock is innocent.

Paddock faces a Dec. 15 sentencing hearing before Lake County Circuit Court Judge Henry Tonigan. She was found guilty of four counts of sexual abuse, but found not guilty on six other counts.

"It is a shame so many years of accomplishment was ruined by a crime she did not commit," Grayslake High student Jennifer Hill said.

Several Grayslake High staff members testified on Paddock's behalf and Paddock took the stand in the week-long trial, denying the charges.

Counseling was available for staff and students Monday after the six men and six women jury returned the verdict after five and one-half hours of deliberation Nov. 12. Ray Novak, superintendent, said no one sought help.

A 19-year-old GCHS graduate brought the charges. The incidents took place when she was a 14-year-old freshman.

Lake County States Attorney Mike Waller said he was satisfied with the verdict. "We believe the evidence would have supported convictions on all counts," Waller said.

An appeal is expected.

Paddock faces three to seven years for each count. Waller said the State's Attorney's office had not decided on a recommendation. Which prison Paddock would be assigned to would be up to the Department of Corrections, but probation is also a possibility. The only women's prison in Illinois is in Dwight.

Waller said this case does not mean an increase in reporting such crimes, but such cases are investigated more thoroughly. "There are a number of factors, including more training and awareness," Waller said.

"This is the first case we have prosecuted between a female teacher and a female student. What usually happens is there is a large number of people who do not believe it or do not want to believe it. People who commit sexual abuse are often successful and accomplished and shield the other areas and lie about abuse," Waller said.

Paddock was named assistant athletic director in 1985 after more than 10 years coaching various sports. Her golf teams won several Northwest Suburban Conference league championships and she was assistant basketball coach.

Church mourns loss of prominent parishioners

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

An accident on Washington Street claimed one more life as Wilma Turner of Round Lake died of complications from injuries.

Turner, 68, of Round Lake, died Friday morning. Also Lupe Albright, 69, of Lake Villa, died the day of the accident on Saturday, Nov. 6. Additional charges of reckless homicide and driving under the influence are likely for the driver of the vehicle, Benjamin E. Tilton, 36, of Gurnee.

Gurnee Police confirm this is not the first DUI arrest on Tilton but won't comment about the other arrests. The judgment of pressing additional charges is up to the State's Attorney's office.

Meanwhile, Tuesday in Round Lake, mourners gathered to pay their last respects to Turner who was a church elder and active in Calvary Presbyterian Church whose congregation has now suffered the loss of two prominent parishioners.

"It is important for people to know it was a senseless accident inflicted upon two innocent and decent people who were deeply loved by both the congregation and the community. They were loved by hundreds and hundreds of people," Rev. Lisle Kauffman said.

"It was a loss for the church and a great personal loss for the congregation. She was everybody's personal friend," said Cindy Surlita, Church secretary.

Surlita said Turner was always one who gave of herself for the benefit of others.

"She was selfless, a hard worker, generous and patient. She always looked for the good and if she didn't find it she kept her mouth shut. She lived life to the fullest and when something needed to be done she found a way to get it done," Surlita said.

Turner held many positions within the church. She was a ruling elder in the church, a member of the Presbytery, a council of members in the Chicagoland Area, she was the financial secretary of the church and was responsible for all church accounting and bank deposits. She has held almost every position in the Women's Presbyterial. Turner delivered "Meals on Wheels" three days a week.

Wilma Turner

Albright was an alternate to the Women's Presbyterial. She was also an elder in the church and sang lead soprano in the choir.

Turner and Albright were personal friends for most of their lives. Turner was a founding member of the congregation where she met husband John also deceased. Albright was a member of the church for 38 years.

"They were absolutely integral members of the congregation. Both of them were equally involved with the life of the church. We are getting by with a lot of grief but a lot of faith," Kauffman said.

Kauffman said Turner was active with her family. Her daughter, Cindy Nichols is an ordained deacon and taught Sunday school for 15 years.

"She was planning on taking a trip to Disney World with her grandson Lance. That was the type of life she was leading," Kauffman said.

Christmas trees will be for sale in the Globe parking lot this season now that the Village Board has passed an ordinance allowing the sale of certain agricultural items, such as Christmas trees and pumpkins. The license fee will be $5 per day not to exceed $50 in a season.

Craft fair

The Oakland Grade School PTO is holding its "School House Holiday Bazaar" annual craft fair and bake sale on Saturday, Nov. 20 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Over sixty quality crafters are offering unique, beautifully made things for yourself, your home and gift giving. Also featured are numerous raffle items, door prizes, home-made bakery goods, pizza lunch and face painting for kids. Oakland Grade School is located at the intersection of Grass Lake and Deep Lake Roads between Antioch and Lindenhurst.

Footlights is a community success

by CLAUDIA M. LENART
Lakeland Newspapers

St. Peter's Footlights chalked up its 12th successful year with more than 2,000 people attending the entertainment extravaganza.

"What has made Footlights so successful is the quality of the entertainment rooms. Some of the rooms have been here for a few years. But you also see something different every year," said Linda Pedersen, a member of the Footlights Committee which also includes Wayne Sobczak, Phil and Carole Delany, Dean Pedersen, LaVergne Nauseda, and Sue Ellen and Andy Johnson.

And the entertainment is a showcase for local talent. With the exception of the comedy/variety room, all the performers are local. This year the Rosanna Danna Joanna & Co. room sponsored by Strangs Funeral Home featured a variety of entertainment, comedy, tap-dancing and magic.

"We had a very positive response from the entire show. Everybody loved the variety," said Patty Hermes of the Comedy Connection, which booked the Rosanna Danna Joanna entertainment.

Every room, from the casino, to PM & L to the popular Lip Sync, the eateries and others, enjoyed a crowd every night.

The event comes about through a slew of volunteers and sponsors. Pedersen said the committee starts meeting in February and meets twice a month. Other key volunteers include the room managers who are responsible for the decor which amazingly transforms school rooms into cabarets, nightclubs and more.

Proceeds from Footlights go to keeping tuition down at St. Peter's School. However, not only St. Peter's parishioners are involved in Footlights.

"A thing we've been really proud of is it's not just a parish event, it's become a community event. A lot of people from the community are involved who are not parishioners," said Pedersen.

LaVergne Nauseda said Footlights and St. Peter's Parish are grateful to the 65 room sponsors and the businesses who advertised in the Footlights ad book.

"Without our sponsors we wouldn't be profiting," said Pedersen.

Village considers job pool program

by CLAUDIA M. LENART
Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Village Board gave the go-ahead to Community Development Director Claude LeMere to devise a plan for a Job Pool program.

LeMere said he's been working with Antioch's industrial businesses to see how the village can assist them. "One of the ways they said is to set up a job pool," said LeMere. He said many of the businesses prefer to employ local people.

Village Administrator Tim Wells and LeMere were asked by the board to come up with a plan by the next meeting on Dec. 6.

One possibility would be for businesses to notify LeMere's office by mail or Fax of upcoming positions. The job openings would then be published in the Community Calendar. LeMere and the Chamber of Commerce would field incoming calls.

The other possibility would be to set up a job information line. Wells suggested this option because he thought LeMere may get bogged down with the job pool and the phone line could be updated more frequently.

"The idea is good. We need to show industry we're willing to help them out," said Wells.

Economic Development Commission in works

With an increasing emphasis on economic development in Antioch, the Village Board is working on forming an Economic Development Commission (EDC).

Village Attorney Ken Clark read the first reading of an ordinance creating an EDC at the Village Board meeting.

The EDC would consist of 9 to 13 voting members who would be appointed by the mayor. The members would be residents or non-residents representing Antioch organizations. They would be volunteer positions. The Community Development Director would be a non-voting member.

The EDC would be responsible for promoting economic development and business retention and expansion in Antioch. The committee would work with the Chamber, CAN, the village planner, village administrator and other officials.

Wilton, Smerz tie the knot in Lake Tahoe

Special wedding

On Oct. 16, "Sweetest Day," Kammie Wilton and Phil "Flip" Smerz were united in marriage. The young couple is from the Antioch area and are now residing close by. However, their wedding was not held in their "Hometown." After seeing a trip to Lake Tahoe featured on the "Wheel of Fortune," they were drawn to the romantic atmosphere of the town and decided that would be the setting for the beginning of their special life together.

The wedding was attended by ten members of their immediate family. Kammie is the daughter of Bob and Leta Wilton and Flip is the son of Donna and Phil Smerz. The maid of honor was Jennifer Hagberg and Stacy Smerz was the bridesmaid. Patrick Smerz was the best man. Kammie and Flip will be having a garden reception for all of their Antioch friends and relatives sometime in June. Congratulations and much happiness to you both.

Memorial service

On Thursday, Nov. 11, the Antioch VFW Post in cooperation with the Women's Auxiliary, the American Legion Club and their Women's Auxiliary, Cub Scout Pack No. 191 and Brownie Pack, held a memorial service at the Hillside cemetery in Antioch. The VFW then placed a wreath in front of the memorial located by the Village Hall. After the ceremony, everyone gathered at the VFW Hall on North Avenue to enjoy coffee and cake and friendly conversation.

AARP

Gene Horsch, the new president of Antioch Area Chapter 387 of AARP, would like to invite all former members of AARP to rejoin the Antioch Chapter. The program chairperson, Eleanor Clark, has many up-coming, exciting activities planned.

Antioch Chapter of AARP is one of the most active chapters in Lake County. Members are always doing things and going places. Their motto is "to serve, not to be served." The Antioch Chapter anticipates a very interesting year, involving many changes and surprises that will result in a very successful year of fun and participation in AARP activities.

Memorial holiday

The little ones of the Camp Crayon Program never cease to amaze us. As Camp Director, Marie Brausam, began to discuss the Nov. 11 Veteran's Day, she asked the children if they knew what a veteran was? Little Seth Davis, our special little story teller, raised his hand and said, "A veteran is someone who went to war." Marie then went on to explain how lucky we all were to live in America, the land of the free, and explained the meaning and importance behind our American flag and the Pledge of Allegiance.

The children were each given a little flag donated by the Lake Villa VFW Post 4308 and delivered to us by Vivian Brausam. The children were very excited to learn about this commemorative holiday and to receive their own American flags. The Camp Crayon Program would like to thank the VFW Post 4308 and Vivian Brausam for making this presentation even more special and meaningful to the children.

Parade time

The annual Antioch Thanksgiving/ Christmas parade will be held on Saturday, Nov. 27, at 9 a.m. The Chamber of Commerce and the Parks Department encourage all businesses and organizations to enter the parade. There is no fee to enter and participation promises a lot of fun.

The deadline for parade entry is Tuesday, Nov. 23. For more information, call 395-2160. Santa's Enchanted Castle opens after the parade. The Castle hours are Monday through Friday, from 5:30 to 8 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The staff at Emmon's School would like to welcome Bonnie McMenamin. Bonnie is an instructional aide for the resource program. The citizen's group is working on plans for a March 1994 building referendum to add classroom space to address the overcrowded conditions at the school. If you would like to assist in this effort, please call the school.

Congratulations to the following Emmon's "STARS" for the months of September and October. Santa's Secret Workshop will be held at Grass Lake School on Dec. 1, 2 and 3. Also please circle Sunday, Dec. 5 on your calendars. This is the date of the Annual PTO Breakfast with Santa. The GLS fourth grade teacher, Dave Tomei, is very excited over the remarkable involvement in the Chess Club. There are many challenging competitions planned for the upcoming months. The first tournament will be Saturday, Dec. 4, at Benjamin School in West Chicago. Dave is very proud of the chess team and under his fine coaching, it is always a very enjoyable learning experience for everyone involved. Keep up the great work, Dave, and thanks for caring so much to make this mind challenging experience available to the students.

The Taffy Apples were delicious and Paula Maniscalco provided the fine leadership for this successful fundraiser.

Creations

I recently had the pleasure of meeting and talking with Maureen Ziemann of Antioch. Maureen relocated to the Antioch area from Chicago about four years ago. She definitely enjoys living in our special "Hometown" and has recently started "Maureen's Creations." "Maureen's Creations" specializes in silk and dried floral arrangements, wedding flowers and corsages for all occasions. She has already created the floral bouquets and flowers for several weddings.

Her work is so beautifully and expertly done that each new job produces another. At the present time Maureen is very busy creating beautiful Christmas Floral arrangements. If you would like to brighten up your home for the holidays, contact Maureen for a one of a kind, beautiful holiday floral arrangement. If you are planning a wedding, make the event even more memorable by having Maureen handle all of the floral necessities. You can make an appointment for a consultation with Maureen by calling her at 395-8472.

One more time

Many years ago, the Grass Lake School PTO helped pay for a very nice wood playground area for the children. Due to weathering and many, many years of extensive use, it recently became necessary to remove the old equipment and look into the ways and means of creating a new and safer playground area.

The "Friends of the Playground" committee, have been hard at work planning and holding many fund raisers to raise the needed playground funds. This is an enormous task that requires much time and energies. If you have any fund raising ideas to share, or if you can give a few hours of your time to help with a fund raiser, please call 395-6972. The "Friends" have conducted several bake sales, a walk-a-thon, the recycling center at GLS, coupon book sales, and are in the process of planning the January bowl-a-thon, a possible spring time skate-a-thon, and other various fund raisers.

Antioch village officials and owners and friends of Da Dairy Barn on North Avenue gather for the grand opening of the quality giftware, antiques and crafts store.

Dairy Barn, OP's offer giftware to greenery

by CLAUDIA M. LENART
Lakeland Newspapers

'Da Dairy Barn' is here and Antioch's newest business is hard to miss. Located on North Avenue, Da Dairy Barn, a fine giftware, antiques and crafts conglomerate, is housed in, what else, but a candy apple red barn painted by Jim Sweeney.

Da Dairy Barn is owned by Terri and John Bredican, a couple who decided to go after their dream. "I've always loved fine giftware, always been interested in it and I've always done a lot of buying," said Terri. "We wanted to do something for ourselves," said John.

The Bredicans already have a wide assortment of merchandise with about 30 artists and crafters exhibiting. In the spring, they plan to open up the second floor where there will be space for 40 more exhibitors bringing an even greater assortment of crafts, art and collectibles.

"I wanted to have a place where people could find something they couldn't find anywhere else," said Terri.

But that's not all. The Bredican's son-in-law and daughter, Richard and Joanne Gniadek, are also involved in the venture. Richard will run OP's Garden Center out of the barn. He will offer an assortment of annuals and perennials, trees, bushes, sod, mulch and more. OP's Garden Center will be a division of Outdoor Products Landscape Co., Richard's landscape design business.

Although the Garden Center won't be in full operation until spring, Richard plans to sell Christmas trees this season.

Hours for Da Dairy Barn are 10 to 6 p.m., Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday; and 10 to 8 p.m., Tuesday and Friday. Hours will be longer during the Christmas season.

AARP food drive successful

Canned Goods Day, sponsored by Antioch Chapter 387, AARP on Nov. 9, was a big success. Over 30 boxes of food were delivered to Antioch Churches for the Needy Families of the Antioch Area. A vote of thanks was given to the members who helped pack the boxes and deliver them to the churches. President Jean Horsch said it was not an easy job for the "girls" to carry those heavy boxes but they managed very well with no male help.

Next meeting of the chapter will be a Thanksgiving Party on Nov. 23 at the Senior Center. Lunch will be catered by Corey's of Ingleside. Tickets have all been sold.

The Christmas Party on Dec. 14 will be held at the Waterfalls Restaurant in Antioch. Tickets are $6.50 for members; $8.50 for nonmembers, and will be sold at the meeting on Nov. 23.

Principals attend conference

Paul Hain, Debbie-Kerr Carpenter, Mary Kay McNeill, James Lienhardt, principals in Antioch Grade School Dist. 34, participated in the Twenty Second Annual Fall Conference of the Illinois Principals Association on Oct. 24 through 26. More than 500 principals from throughout the state gathered in Springfield at the Prairie Capitol Convention Center, the Springfield Renaissance Hotel, and the Springfield Hilton Hotel.

Members of the Association, which serves elementary, middle and secondary principals and assistant principals, met in various workshop sessions and meetings. Designed to enhance their skills, these gatherings gave them an opportunity to exchange ideas.

Seven outstanding, nationally recognized speakers were present at the IPA Conference. Dr. Robert Leininger, Illinois State Superintendent of Education addressed the First General Session on Monday, Oct. 25; Samuel G. Sava, executive director of the National Association of Elementary School Principals in Alexandria, Virg. was the featured speaker at the IPA Breakfast and Governor Jim Edgar delivered his message at Tuesday evening's IPA Annual Banquet.

Scott D. Thomson, the executive secretary of the National Policy Board for Educational Administration in Fairfax, Virg. was the featured speaker at Monday's North Central Association Luncheon. The Illinois Elementary School Association Luncheon featured Judith M. Sweet, director of athletics at the University of California, San Diego, while the Illinois Women Administrators Luncheon hosted Karen Prudik, the principal of Frankfort Square School in Frankfort, Ill.

Thirty five small group sessions, designed to update principals on current trends and practices were offered on Monday and Tuesday. Business meetings were conducted throughout the three days.

On Monday and Tuesday, one of the largest Educational Exhibitions in the state was held, featuring more than one hundred, twenty-four vendors. The most up-to-date instructional aids for schools, as well as varied exhibits associated with the many facets today, were made available to the principals.

Village considers action due to unfinished work

The Antioch Village Board has decided to notify NBD Bank that it is considering calling a letter of credit for $105,000 on Deer Trails-Pine Hill Lakes development.

The board plans to call the letter of credit if the developers have not completed street pavement by the next Village Board meeting on Dec. 6. Developers have told Village Planner Bob Silhan that workers would be out to finish the road this week.

The board is concerned that the unpaved streets with the elevated manholes would make it difficult, if not impossible, for snowplowing.

If the street pavement is completed by the next meeting, the board would extend the letter of credit until June 30, 1994. If the village were to call the letter of credit, then the village would be responsible for finishing work at the subdivision.

Silhan is also concerned about unfinished walking paths, ponds that have not been cleared, and street lights that have yet to be installed.

The village plans to continue holding up new construction permits at the development.

Neighbor dispute

Antioch police reported on Nov. 13 at 4:21 p.m. a village man was outside repairing his car when a verbal argument ensued between him and a neighbor who was trying to take a nap. The neighbor told the complainant that if the noise didn't stop, he will "get my gun." When the police came, they observed the offender to be intoxicated. No arrests were made, and both men agreed there would be no more problems, said police.

Resisting arrest

Antioch police reported on Nov. 13 at about 3:15 a.m. they received a call about a disorderly subject at the Las Vegas Restaurant in Antioch. When police arrived, they observed the offender, Philip R. Smerz, 24, of 28 Jamaica Colony, Fox Lake, arguing loudly with patrons at another table. The offender said he never received his food. Police reported the subject was "extremely intoxicated" and had "a strong odor of alcohol" and was "unsteady on his feet." When police escorted him out of the restaurant, the subject "screamed profanities." This resulted in the complainant becoming alarmed and distressed, according to the report, and Smerz began backing towards the officers who attempted to arrest him. The subject then tried to resist arrest.

The Discords give back to ACHS

The Discords, a locally popular a cappella singing group, held a benefit concert at Antioch Community High School. Despite various other activities on Halloween weekend, the group raised $350 for the school.

Antioch High School is the alma mater for four of The Discords, Steve Newcomb, Aaron Bernau, Rich Meltzer and Dave Debenham. George Roberts is a graduate of Wauconda High School.

The group has been together for six years and in that time has sold out two concerts at the College of Lake County.

The Discords were grateful to everyone who helped them in their ACHS concert including ACHS choir director Keith Cox, Brian Pashke, Tim Allen, Peter Poli, their girlfriends, and parents.

Creagh said he got involved in the drug program because he had no real understanding of the problem.

"I thought I knew about the drug problem. I watched CNN, I watched C-SPAN and I thought I knew. I found out I didn't know nothing about drugs. I came to the conclusion if I didn't know anything I suspected most Americans didn't have a clue what was going on," Creagh said.

Creagh encouraged parents to use the same networks the kids do. Talk to each other pass information. If they know about a beer party call other parents and try to stop it. parents should listen to their kids tapes.

The key is for the people not doing the drugs get involved. Smoking went down when people became aware that others smoking affected them and they did something about it, according to Creagh.

"People got the guts to tell them to not smoke around them anymore. People have to get mad and involved and do something about it," Creagh said.

The book "Parenting for Prevention" is available free through the high school and is recommended by Creagh. The phone number at the high school is 395-1421.

All the scores were within the standard deviation or band of scores. Schley said he is not too concerned about any scores going down unless they are out of the band. He said the scores are a reflection of the class which takes them, some classes tend to perform better than others.

"As long as they are within the standard deviation there is no significant difference if they are up or down," Schley said.

The students have done well despite staff reductions and budget cuts in the education fund. The scores seem to be leveling off or going down from previous years.

The state will use the test scores as a basis for a school rating.

Quit hanging around

Yes, I'd like to know why the Lindenhurst police just ignore the kids that are running in big groups in Lindenhurst. They just run all over the plants and McDonald's, everywhere, and they just totally ignore them. They do whatever they feel like, they get into all kinds of trouble, they cuss up a storm, they smoke everything, I mean, even besides smoking, and they just totally ignore them. Something should be done so people can feel safe at night and not have to run out and be afraid to go out at night. I really think that instead of just picking on people, they should find something worthwhile to do with these kids. Tell them to go home, curfew, tell them to quit hanging around. Tell them to do something and not just totally ignore them and be wimpy.

Donkey basketball

Did you know that on Thursday, Nov. 11 at, I think it was Wauconda High School, the Wauconda Fire Dept. and the members of the high school wrestling team got together on donkeys and played basketball? I think it's great that 200 pound guys riding around on donkeys, and probably hitting them in the head with basketballs and stuff, whether you print this or not, I don't care, but maybe your newspaper would like to look into why none were riding around on these animals in the name of charity.

Government for the people

This is pertaining to the children of our country, in particular, Chicago. Thanks to our Mickey Mouse government that we have for a governor and a mayor who, all they think about is what's good for them so their pictures are in the paper every now and then pertaining to the children, which really is pertaining to them. Their main concern is "What can I get out of this publicity?" Now that election is getting near, Mr. Edgar and Mr. Daley, they're all for the children's support and supposedly the whole bunch in Springfield. At election time, they must think that people are going to be stupid all their life or fall for the same rigamarole all the time. They want to solve this problem, let everybody involved—politicians, teachers, unions and all—don't take any pay until the situation is settled. Don't be using the children as their goals that they're fighting for, which they really aren't. All they're looking for is to make themselves look good around election time. This is an old, old issue. Believe me, I am a transplanted Chicagoan and I've dealt with many of the politicians and gentlemen and aldermen, and believe me, it's all the same. The people in the city have to wake up. All of them. Don't let these Mickey Mouse trickle downs or favoritisms that they give you sway your vote. Mr. Edgar and Mr. Daley, wake up and smell the coffee. You people are the government for the people, not for yourselves. It's for your own benefits. All you clowns. Thank you.

Medical thing

Hi, I love your music, but what I don't like, and what I totally abhor, is Hilary and Clinton's medical thing. It's socialist and people, wake up and smell the coffee. Write your congressman, tell him you don't want it because it's gonna cost us a lot of money. Let us take care of ourselves, invent new programs so we can take care of ourselves. Leave the government out. They'll mess it up.

Pull out

Yes, it's time to get the United States out of the UN and it's time to get the Clintons out of the White House. Thank you.

an unfortunate fire in our pole barn. But thanks to the eight fire departments that responded, which includes Fox Lake, Grayslake, Gurnee, Lake Villa, Libertyville, Round Lake, Wauconda, Waukegan, we didn't lose as much as we could have. Much equipment and many vehicles were spared. Their quick response was greatly appreciated. Once again, thank you.

CLC reaching out

Innovative spirit puts college in tune with all ages, groups.

Construction of a new multi-use classroom building and a performing arts center is underway at the Grayslake campus of the College of Lake County, certifiable evidence that the college is growing outwardly.

As dramatic and impressive as is the physical development, CLC's inner growth doubtlessly is just as impressive and perhaps more dramatic. Dr. Daniel J. LaVista, president, is taking justifiable pride in the college's strides in innovative teaching methods.

The College of Lake County is one of the first community colleges to develop a model for assessment of student writing that cuts across multiple disciplines. In an era when literacy is waning, CLC is showing the way to better writing by having more than writing instructors assess writing skills.

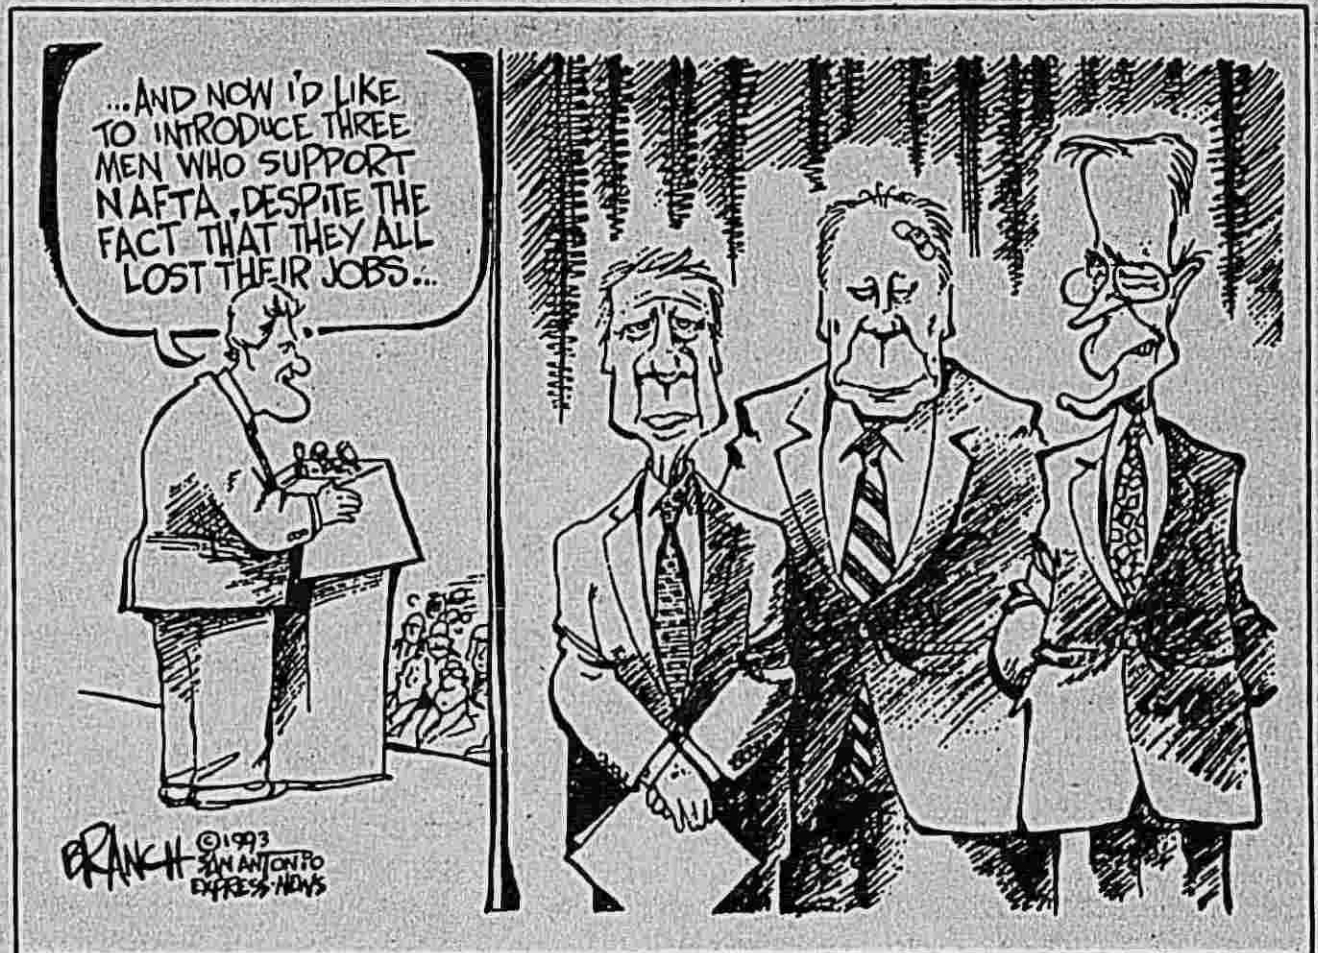

With funding from the Dwight D. Eisenhower Mathematics and Science Education Program, CLC developed a training program for elementary science teachers that permits them to go beyond textbooks. Twenty-eight teachers from 19 school districts participated.

Four companies, Baxter Healthcare of Round Lake, Abbott Laboratories, MacLean-Fogg of Mundelein and Metalex of Libertyville contributed work release time and in-kind services to implement a workplace literacy program. The effort was designed to overcome the reality that almost half of American adults lack sufficient reading and writing skills to hold down a job. The program met with an outpouring of gratitude and appreciation from participants.

The past year saw the launching of an educational outreach program for seniors conducted at the Southlake campus. Lake Forest Hospital participated as a co-sponsor. Appropriately entitled, "Discovery," the program demonstrates that age 60 can be an embarkation point to new learning.

Besides highlighting significant innovations of the past year, Dr. Vista noted in his annual report that CLC is vigilant for new partnerships. With such an outlook, CLC guards against complacency and the ordinary. Through inner growth, CLC is reaching out—to everyone.

Forest Preserve monies will be spent correctly

Editor:

During the Nov. 2 election, over 31,000 Lake County voters said "yes" to preserving more natural areas, wildlife habitats, trail and greenway corridors and improving opportunities for outdoor recreation and education in their forest preserves.

On behalf of the Forest Preserve Board of Commissioners, staff and dedicated volunteers, we would like to extend a sincere "Thank You" to all the residents of Lake County for their support of the Forest Preserves 1993 bond referendum.

Thirty-five years ago, in 1958, a countrywide referendum to begin a Forest Preserve District was placed on the ballot by citizens concerned about the fast pace of development and the loss of open space in the county at the time. Lake County voters realized the value of preserving this land for future generations and the referendum passed by a wide margin, with 60 percent of the votes.

Today, as we celebrate the anniversary of 35 years of excellence in service to the residents of Lake County, the Forest Preserve District continues to strive to provide a dynamic and unique system of exceptional high-quality natural lands and help maintain a well-balanced quality of life in our area.

With the successful passage of this recent bond referendum, vanishing natural areas, some which are home to many threatened and endangered species, will be preserved and protected, and creation of new recreational, cultural and educational opportunities in the Forest Preserves will continue.

Letter to the Editor

Land acquisition plans will focus on preserving natural wildlife habitats, trail and greenway corridors, wetlands, prairies and forests and on providing flood control. Up to $20 million of the funds are allocated for land acquisition.

A list of improvement and restoration projects concentrate on creating trails, completing construction of Des Plaines River Trail and on public use areas for recreational, educational and cultural facilities. The remainder of the funding is allocated for these improvements, and in at least eight Forest Preserves, wildlife habitats, wetlands, prairies and savannas will be restored.

We are proud of the diverse community coalition of conservation, civic and business leaders that came together to support this referendum. Campaign efforts were conducted by volunteers and paid for through private contributions, not tax dollars. The "Friends of the Forest Preserves" volunteer campaign group, made up of more than 175 active members, organized presentations, produced informational brochures, conducted over 10,000 telephone calls to Lake County voters, and raised thousands of dollars to help get the message out about the importance of this issue.

We want to assure all Lake County residents that the referendum monies will be spent efficiently and effectively, and to the extent we are successful in obtaining matching grants, increasing revenue generating programs and other funds, your tax dollars will go even further.

Thanks to voters and all Lake County citizens, the Forest Preserve can move forward and preserve land now while it is still available, not only for you to enjoy today, but for our children and their children to enjoy forever.

Blueprint for the future

Adoption of vision and mission statements is a business-like step in Lake Zurich.

The admonition to "run governmental more like a business" has been taken to heart by officials of Lake Zurich in a manner that suggests a blueprint for the well run municipality.

Utilizing techniques popularized in private business like out-of-town retreats and weekend staff get-togethers, Lake Zurich village leaders formulated vision and mission statements, and have set about to implement the documents designed to provide direction for the future.

Mayor Deborah A. Vasels points out that the vision and mission statements are vital foundations to guide leaders of the essentially "white collar" community that has evolved from the "blue collar" town it was 15 years ago and the resort community Lake Zurich was as recently as two decades ago. The vision and mission statements were adopted as a formal item of village business.

Whether development of the vision and mission statements turns out to be the pathway to governing success or merely an exercise remains to be seen. But no one can deny that a significant step toward the synthesis of business and government is unfolding in Lake Zurich.

New Illinois product no corny story

by BILL SCHROEDER

A plastic zip bag arrived chuck full of what appeared to be hunks of stale bread. Stuffing for the Thanksgiving turkey? Sample croutons for lunch?

Not at all. The bite-sized chunks turned out to be the newest product being made from Illinois corn. Called CornPak, the product as the name implies is a packing material.

A product of a Champaign concern, CornPak is made from ground, "puffed" corn. The stuff is a loose-fill packing material that is 100 percent biodegradable--the politically correct alternative to Styrofoam.

CornPak contains no chemicals or synthetic ingredients. The only additives are a soybean byproduct and a trace amount of newspapers. Disposal of the stuff is easy and environmentally safe. CornPak can be fed to wildlife or livestock, composted, or tilled into the garden. The product quickly breaks down when it gets wet, decomposing and can be returned to the soil.

Dr. Earl Rodda, president of the manufacturing company, said that CornPak is an example of teamwork in the market place. The company received support from the Illinois Corn Marketing Board and the University of Illinois is developing the product.

You know that the crunchy, foamy-looking stuff has a big time future when realizing that 78 million pounds of Styrofoam is used annually in the U.S. Much of it never gets recycled. It's just buried, taking up valuable space in landfills.

CornPak is an Illinois product through and through. Take pride in the Prairie State. Just shows how far innovation and imagination goes. Wonder how CornPak tastes with gravy on it?

POISONOUS CREEK?---Frank Grenus, Lake Villa farmer, knows a dead cow when he sees one. When two cows die, Grenus sees red. What Grenus also sees is contaminated Eagle Creek flowing through his property.

Ominous blue green algae in the creek could be connected with the death of the livestock. Grenus was in touch with the Lake County Health Dept. Michael F. Kuhn of the environmental engineering section acknowledged that a potential health risk exists for farm animals.

Now Grenus is saying that he made a mistake by not having autopsies performed on the steers worth $1,400. One died in the barn and the other died in the pasture.

"I would advise everyone not to shoot deer or home-raised beef to put on the dinner table unless it is inspected by the Health Dept.," Grenus declared. The grizzled farmer, whose bouts with officialdom over problems associated with growth and development are legendary, also views with alarm the fact that there are no muskrat houses built on the creek north and east of Cedar Lake Rd. He believes the water is too toxic for the tastes of the wildlife.

Grenus said the Health Dept. sent him a pamphlet on how to prevent livestock deaths from blue green algae poisoning. Mark Pfister, aquatic biologist, reported finding poisonous blue green algae downstream from the Grenus property, but not upstream. So the death of the steers remains a mystery.

ATTRACTION---Ever wonder why the sky above a landfill always seems to be thick with birds? It's not the free lunch. Take it from Don Moorehead, CEO of US Waste that operates Countryside Landfill, it's the warmth and height that attracts the feathered friends. Countryside attracts hundreds of Lake Michigan gulls daily at the Rte. 83 site that is taking on the appearance of a park under Moorehead's management.

Police don't fight crime

Editor:

People are demanding that government get out of their lives. Unfortunately, getting government out of our lives is not enough. We are experiencing a nationwide tragedy that has resulted from government interference with our police.

Politicians have caused our police to degenerate from crime fighting organizations intended to protect our lives and property into revenue generating branches of local and state governments. The generation of revenue through the guise of traffic enforcement has become the active or primary function of police. Fighting crime and protection of our property has become a passive or secondary activity.

As a result of the governmental mismanagement of our police, we are being denied the police protection for which we are being taxed. We have serious crime and drug problems in every part of our country. Instead of using the greater part of our police forces to address these problems, we see the greater percent of our police stalking the roads ready to issue traffic tickets for the most minor infraction of our traffic laws. I don't know if getting the police out of the money business will solve all our crime and drug problems, but I would be willing to bet that it would cause a drastic reduction of these problems.

Off mark on Skoien

Editor:

Your comment in the "Opinion" column, "Skoien 'crash' scored," strikes me as odd. I am a township trustee from Cuba Township, and I was at that dinner, and saw no indication that Gary Skoien's presence was scorned, or unwelcome, or in any way frowned on.

You seem to think that this was a "closed event." I happen to have here a copy of the reservation form. On it are clear spaces for marking a person's status as "guest" and another which reads: "If candidate in November election, indicate office." Apparently, candidates were expected at the dinner.

As long as I've been involved politically, candidates have been going to political affairs to make their presence and availability known, indeed, as long as there have been elections and candidates that has been the way it goes. Gary Skoien is a good man working hard to get elected to represent the people in an important office.

No longer 'good citizen'

Editor:

I would like to share a neighbor's perspective regarding W.W. Grainger's planned development in the Mettawa area. To be certain this is not just a question of community aesthetics, but of the explicit desire of the residents of this community. The desire to maintain an investment, an investment in quality, the quality of life that is the result of daily effort. Is it not the right of the residents to be the designer of their own destiny or is it otherwise? Should it be considered correct for a single organization to have the right to change land plans and zoning, to circumvent with slick political maneuverings?

I regret that W.W. Grainger has become involved in this. W.W. Grainger has always maintained the very positive position of being a "good corporate citizen." It seems that the once obvious easy acquisition and development of this property, has proven to be not so obviously easy. As a result W.W. Grainger's reputation as a "good corporate citizen" is in question, at least by Grainger's proposed neighbors, the residents of the LML communities and the Des Plaines River Corridor residents.

The development of Grainger's property will cost the community far more than Grainger could ever profit. Traffic, sewage, the inevitable road construction and the general destruction of the entire corridor. How can our governing bodies allow Grainger this development and refuse others? Will the next one, the one after, and so on, will they all be quality developments, spacious and preserving of the land and tranquillity. I think not. So think about Grainger's intrusion and understand that there will be no end to the struggle for our community, it is our right, and we worked for it.

Is it the Lake Forest postal mailing address?

There was and still are large tracks available across the tollway in Lake Forest proper. Grainger is in the process of a de-annexation from Mettawa, and trying to annex into Vernon Hills. Which by the way has ample property zoned for just this use. Not to mention all of the necessary facilities and amenities that Grainger will require. So, why wouldn't Grainger just buy property already zoned for your purposes?

Waukegan Theater goes to Chicago

There was something sort of magical about "Sly Fox." When the show's run was over in October, Waukegan's Bowen Park Theatre Company wasn't quite ready for this fun to end.

So, they decided maybe they could make the magic last just a little longer, like about six weeks. But not in Waukegan. The theater is already booked with the Bowen Park Opera Company. However, there are theaters to rent down in Chicago.

"Everybody in the cast didn't want to see it end. . . We wanted to do it again, we had so much fun doing it," said Mark Heller, artistic director for Bowen Park Theatre.

John Gibbons, one of the leads in "Sly Fox" is a Chicago resident and found a theatre for rent. "Sly Fox" will head to Chicago's Synergy Theatre for a six-week run opening Dec. 4.

Heller hopes Bowen Park will get noticed in Chicago. The Chicago media tends to overlook northern Lake County's theater scene and the prestigious Jeff awards have a cut-off of 50 miles from Chicago.

Heller said the Jeff committee plans to view the show. Committees of theatre experts view Chicago area shows throughout the year and judge them on a point system leading up to the yearly Jeff awards.

"Everybody felt that whatever we do it will benefit the company," said Heller. "We're looking for a good audience and we know it will do well."

by CLAUDIA M. LENART

One of the leads in the show is Patrick Kerr, an Antioch resident and drama teacher at Grayslake Middle School. Kerr has performed in other Bowen Park productions and has worked with PM&L and the Waukegan Players.

Kerr describes himself as a latecomer to theater. Although he performed in high school plays, his interest was sparked anew when the teacher directed a fifth-grade play. He went on to work in local companies and to pursue a masters degree in theater from Roosevelt University. He has one summer left in the program.

Kerr never dreamed he'd be performing in Chicago. "I can't believe it, but I just want to take it as it is. We get ignored a lot in Chicago and I hope we can impress some people," he said.

"It's a fun show, a fun cast. I've had more fun with this show than with any other," said Kerr.

"Sly Fox" was written by Larry Gelbart, one of the creators of the television hit "Mash." He also wrote "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and "City of Angels." "Sly Fox" was based on "Volpone," a classic written by Ben Jonson in the 1600s.

"It's a story about greed and the folly of wanting material possessions and consequently the misfortune," said Heller.

"Sly Fox" is set in the turn-of-the-century, San Francisco. "Our costume people, set design had a ball," said Heller. "There's a lot of joking, sometimes politically incorrect, but you don't even care."

"Sly Fox" opens at the Synergy Theatre Center, 1753 N. Damen on Dec. 4, 8 p.m. Performances are scheduled every Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m. through Jan. 9, except Dec. 23 to 26. Tickets are $12 to $15. Call 336-5967 for reservations and information.

Grayslake actor to perform in 'The Queen of Bingo'

Patrick Carton, a Grayslake resident will appear in a new play, "The Queen of Bingo," which begins this week at the Congress Hotel in Chicago. Carton will be playing the role of a priest running a bingo game.

Carton is a founding member and company player in two small theater companies. In addition, he is a recording artist and published song writer under contract with Chi-Sound Records.

"The Queen of Bingo" is based on a one-act play, "Give the Queen a Dollar," which was staged at the Boar's Head Theater in Lansing, Michigan and off-Broadway at the West Bank Downtown Theater. The new version expands the concept to include the role of the priest onstage.

The play is set at a Friday night Bingo bash in the fictional St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The audience will actually participate in a game of Bingo, and a 10 pound turkey will be given away at every performance.

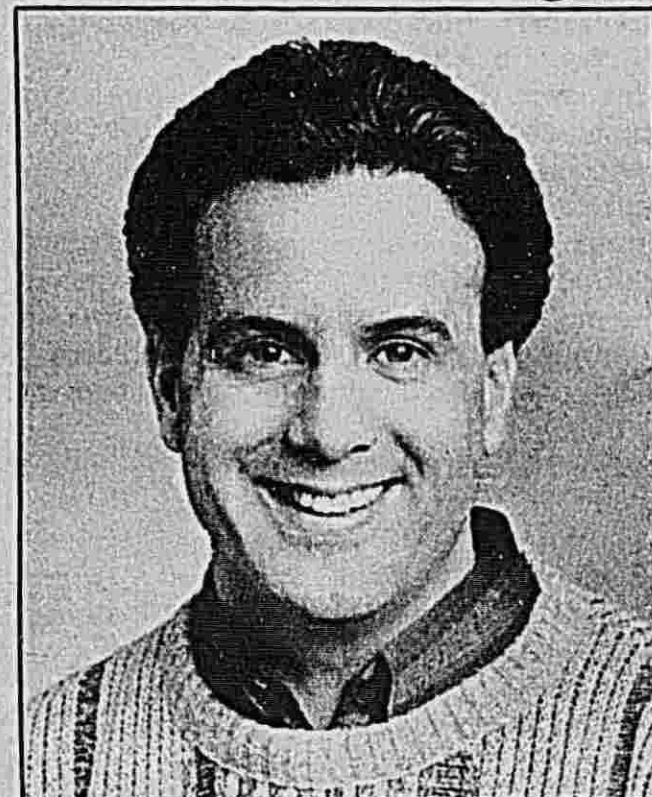

"They got a kick out of the fact that my uncle really is a priest who runs a bingo program," Carton said. "It came out in the audition. I stopped in the middle of the monologue and told them. It didn't hurt me a bit."

Carton says his extensive experience in improvisation is an asset in this particular production.

"I have to improvise during the bingo games," he added. He also plays the bingo caller offstage.

"I'm having a great time," said Carton.

The performances will be Wednesday through Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 7 p.m., special "shoppers" matinees on Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday at 2 p.m. The show will run at least eight weeks. Ticket prices are $10 for all previews and $15-$24.50 for the regular run. Dinner/Theater packages are available. For tickets phone Ticketmaster at (312) 902-1500. We Give Thanks

This is what Thanksgiving is all about: family and friends gathered from far and near, the aroma of roasting turkey coming from the kitchen, a feeling of warmth and good cheer spreading throughout the house. For these and many other blessings, we give thanks.

Frozen frosty pumpkin pie

This is the easiest and most tasty no-bake pumpkin pie you'll ever make.

Crust

- 1 1/2 cup crushed gingersnap cookies
- 1/4 cup butter, melted

Filling

- 16 ounce can (2 cups) pumpkin
- 1 pint (2 cups) vanilla ice cream, softened
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 1/2 tsp. pumpkin pie spice
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 cup frozen whipped topping, thawed

In small bowl, combine crust ingredients; mix well. Press mixture evenly in bottom and up sides of 9-inch pie pan; refrigerate.

In large bowl, combine pumpkin, ice cream, powdered sugar, pumpkin pie spice, salt and vanilla; stir until smooth. Fold whipped topping into pumpkin mixture. Pour into prepared crust. Freeze several hours or until firm. Let stand at room temperature at least 15 minutes before serving.

Garnish as you'd like.

Makes 8 to 10 servings

Orange glaze for turkey

A tangy glaze perks up the flavor of the turkey.

- 1 Tbl. butter
- 1/2 cup orange marmalade
- 1/3 cup frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed
- 1/2 tsp. ginger

In small saucepan, melt butter. Add marmalade, orange juice concentrate and ginger. Cook over medium heat until smooth and bubbly, stirring constantly.

Makes about 1 cup.

Pineapple sweet potato bake

A make-ahead, easy version of the sweet potato dish everyone loves.

- 23-oz. can sweet potatoes, drained
- 3 Tbl. butter, softened
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 8-oz. can crushed pineapple, drained
- 1/3 cup orange juice
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease 1-quart casserole. In medium bowl, mash sweet potatoes with butter and salt. Add pineapple and orange juice; blend well. Spoon into prepared casserole. Sprinkle with brown sugar and pecans. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Makes 6 (1/2 cup) servings.

Cranberry cheesecake bars

The crumb crust is made from a cake mix so it is very easy.

Crust

- 1 pkg. Pillsbury Plus Butter Recipe Cake Mix
- 1/2 cup butter, softened
- 1 egg
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans

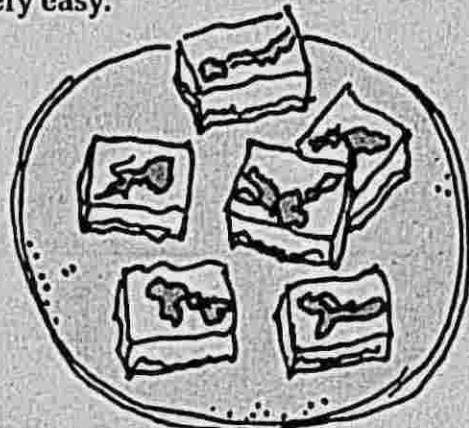

Filling

- 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
- 1/4 cup powdered sugar
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla
- 1 egg
- 16-oz. can whole berry cranberry sauce
- 1/4 tsp. nutmeg

Heat oven to 350 degrees. In large bowl, combine cake mix, butter and one egg at low speed until crumbly. Add pecans; mix well. Press evenly in bottom of ungreased 13x9 inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for five to eight minutes or until crust is set. (Crust will not be browned.)

In small bowl, combine cream cheese, powdered sugar, vanilla and 1 egg; beat until smooth. Add the nutmeg to cranberry sauce; blend well. Carefully pour cream cheese mixture over crust. Spoon cranberry sauce in three rows lengthwise in pan. Pull knife through cranberry sauce and into cream cheese mixture to form swirls. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes or until cream cheese mixture is set. Cool completely. Cut into bars.

Makes 36 bars.

Cranberry orange salad

The perfect holiday salad—mandarin oranges, fresh cranberries and walnuts molded with gelatin.

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
- 12-oz. pkg. fresh or frozen cranberries, finely chopped
- 11-oz. can (1 cup) mandarin orange segments, drained
- 6-oz. pkg. orange flavor gelatin
- 2 cups boiling water

Oil 8 to 10 individual molds or a 6-cup mold. In large bowl, combine sugar, walnuts, cranberries and oranges; set aside. In large bowl, dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Refrigerate gelatin mixture until slightly thickened, about 45 minutes. Add cranberry-orange mixture; stir until well blended. Spoon into prepared molds. Refrigerate until firm, about 3 hours. Unmold onto serving plate; garnish as you'd like.

Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Cornhusk muffins

Drop cornmeal batter laced with chili cheese into muffin cups lined with corn husks; top with more cheese and bake.

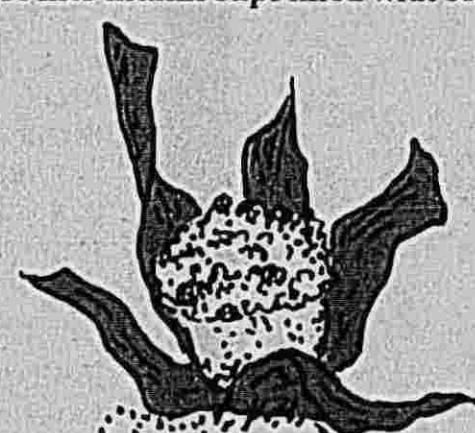

- 6 to 8 dry cornhusks (6 to 8 inch long)
- 2 cup all-purpose flour
- 3/4 cup yellow cornmeal
- 1 Tbl. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 1/3 cup (about 5-oz.) shredded jack cheese with chilies
- 1 large egg
- 1/4 cup (1/8 lb.) melted butter
- 2 Tbl. honey
- 1 cup milk

Separate cornhusks. In a large bowl, pour boiling water over husks to cover; let soak until soft and pliable, about 10 minutes. Drain husks and pat dry. Tear lengthwise into 1 1/2 to 2 inch strips.

In a bowl, mix flour, cornmeal, baking powder, salt and 3/4 cup of cheese. Make a well in center. In another bowl, beat egg, better, honey and milk until blended. Pour into well of flour mixture. Stir just enough to moisten dry ingredients.

In each of 12 greased 2 1/2 inch muffin cups, place 2 or 3 strips of husk, crossing centers in bottom of each cup, so husk ends fan out around sides. As each cup is lined, fill with batter. Sprinkle tops with equal amounts of remaining cheese.

Bake in 375 degrees oven until tops are golden, about 25 minutes. Lift out of pan; cool on rack. Serve warm or cool. Store at room temperature up to 12 hours, or wrap airtight and freeze up to 2 weeks. Makes 12.

Braided bread napkin rings

These homemade napkin rings will bring country charm to your Thanksgiving table. An extra bonus, they're edible.

- 1 pkg. frozen bread dough rolls
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 Tbl. cold water

Supplies

- 4 paper towel tubes from paper towels, foil or other wrap
- Wrap tubes in foil; grease lightly. Grease baking sheets.
- Defrost frozen dough rolls, covered.

Roll each dough roll on lightly floured surface into a rectangle. Cut into 3 strips. Braid the 3 strips of dough. Wrap around prepared tubes, pinching to seal. Repeat with remaining dough. Place on prepared baking sheets. Cover loosely; let rise until double in size, about 30 minutes.

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Combine egg yolk and water; carefully brush on dough. Bake 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown. Remove tubes to wire racks; cool completely on tubes. Carefully remove tubes.

Marriott presents 'Magic Toy Shop'

Once upon a time, a mean old toymaker made beautiful dolls, but refused to give them hearts, or share them with children. When one of the dolls leaves to search for her heart, the angry toymaker locks all the dolls away. The dolls are saved when the greatest toymaker of all comes to their rescue.

Marriott's holiday favorite, "The Magic Toy Shop," returns to the Theatre for Young Audiences stage on Nov. 19 through Dec. 30. The schedule varies but, most Mondays through Fridays performances are from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; Saturdays at 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Individual tickets are $5.50 and are available by calling the box office at 634-0200. Groups of 15 or more are $4 and are available by calling 634-5909.

Science on Saturday

Looking to entertain your children this weekend without pinching your pocket? Then consider a visit to the PowerHouse, Commonwealth Edison's dynamic, new energy education center. The next program is set for Nov. 20. Using a model of a typical neighborhood, Commonwealth Edison energy experts will show children how to "play it safe" around electricity. Local police and firefighters will join in to exhibit their own safety programs.

Those attending the program will also be able to participate in Project Kidcare, a program that provides standardized personal safety documents for children. Each child will receive a KidCare Photo I.D. that also contains emergency notification useful in locating and identifying a missing child. For more information contact the PowerHouse at 746-7080. The educational center is located at 100 Shiloh Boulevard in Zion.

Marriott's 42nd Street is the place to go

BANG! That's that sound of 12 pairs of feet hitting the stage to open the "42nd Street" at Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre, and it's a deeply satisfying sound. It is an exquisitely-performed opening scene, and presages the wonderful presentation of the Warren-Dubin production to come.

You'd have to go some to hate this show - oft referred to as a "musical made in heaven" - and you better try very hard to find flaws in the Marriott production. There are virtually none.

The play follows ingenue Peggy Sawyer, a would-be chorus girl from Allentown Pa., to the Great White Way. Veteran actress—but Marriott newcomer—Cindy Timms takes this part in capable stride. Sawyer auditions (this is the benchmark dance scene in the Marriott effort) for a part in the play-within-the-play called "Pretty Lady," which is being directed by Julian Marsh (Brian Robert Mani). Mani's portrayal of the calculating, soft-hearted director is riveting. New to Marriott, Mani works with several Milwaukee theatre companies.

"42nd Street" director Mark S. Hoebee obviously isn't tired of his 10-year tenure at this particular theatre; he's made all of the "...Street" characters real for the audience.

Other stand-out leads include Andrew Lupp as dancer-singer-gopher Billy Lawlor, Elizabeth Gelman defining the role of roustabout trouble-shooter Maggie Jones, and Jonathan Weir adding his powerful voice to the show as pianist and production manager Bert Barry. That could be the only musical ripple. Weir's voice is so richly dominant that it tends to focus audience attention on him during ensemble tunes such as "Lullaby of Broadway," and "Getting Out of Town." Okay, okay; I'm nit-picking.

There isn't really a weak voice, personality, or pair of legs in the whole cast. Don Forston makes the audience warm immediately to the part of rich buffoon and "Pretty Lady" producer Abner Dillon, and adds a great singing voice to the show. Conductor-keyboardist Michael Duff brings the songs right back to their 1933 roots, while beckoning the 1993 audience close to hear old familiar favorites like "You're Getting to be a Habit With Me," "We're in the Money," "About a Quarter to Nine," and "Shuffle Off to Buffalo."

"Shuffle Off..." is done with the kind of vamping, and dazzling set production, which is the essence of great theatre productions like this one. Most folks, young or old, have heard some of these tunes, but there is nothing on earth like hearing and seeing them done live, by this energetic and talented cast of singers and hoofers.

The only weak spot in the entire play - and you've got to be critical to call it "weak," is the finale, which can't live up to previous costuming, staging, acting, and choreography (Bravo!, Kenny Ingram).

It takes a solid 4.75 out of five stars, and won't disappoint you, whether you've never seen "42nd Street" before, or are a jaded Broadway fan. It runs through Jan. 23, 1994.—by JEFFREY P. BROWN

Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre presents 42nd Street starring Cindy Timms.

Horoscope

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Guard against unfeasible business tangents. Conservative tactics are best this week. Heart-to-heart talks early in the week bring couples closer. Some will sign a contract now.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It is not a good time to experiment with offbeat health regimens. Judgment is good where business is concerned now. Talks with co-workers are productive. Higher-ups may be difficult to deal with now, yet your performance on the job is sterling.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Stay clear of gambling and financial risk-taking early in the week. Judgment may be off where money interests are concerned in general. Fulfillment comes through a creative project. Fantasy could interfere with good judgment where romance is concerned.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Keep your feet on the ground regarding matters of the heart. You are effective in getting your views across to others. An extra expense incurred now may be simply unavoidable. Don't fret about it. Instead, welcome the week's good news about property interests and family concerns.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Make sure you follow through on commitments made this week. Others will expect you to keep your word. It is the right time for making important phone calls. It will take a while for you to win a partner over to your way of thinking.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Common sense and practicality should be your key words in financial dealings this week. Don't be tempted by a get-rich-quick scheme. Be sensible when shopping. A business delay is followed by a breakthrough.

LIBRA (September 23 to October

22) Be sure not to take on more than you can handle. Otherwise, you will end up the week making excuses. You are personable and articulate now. Think twice before making what may be unnecessary changes at home.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Absent-mindedness could cause you to misplace something of importance. Try to pay attention. Research, studying and answering correspondence are favored now. Despite distractions, you will be successful in completing some unfinished business.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A friend's moneymaking scheme sounds wonderful, but may be impractical. It is best that you don't go along. Group interests are accented this week. Watch spending and avoid wasteful shopping. You may receive a wonderful social invitation this weekend.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A business proposal made this week seems too good to be true. Don't be tempted by this proposition. Talks with higher-ups are favored now. Don't spread yourself too thin. You will meet with bona fide chances to get ahead now.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Bad timing and poor planning make this an unwise time for travel. Be sure to attend to current obligations. A meeting with an adviser goes very well. Guard against gullibility now. Don't believe everything you hear at face value.

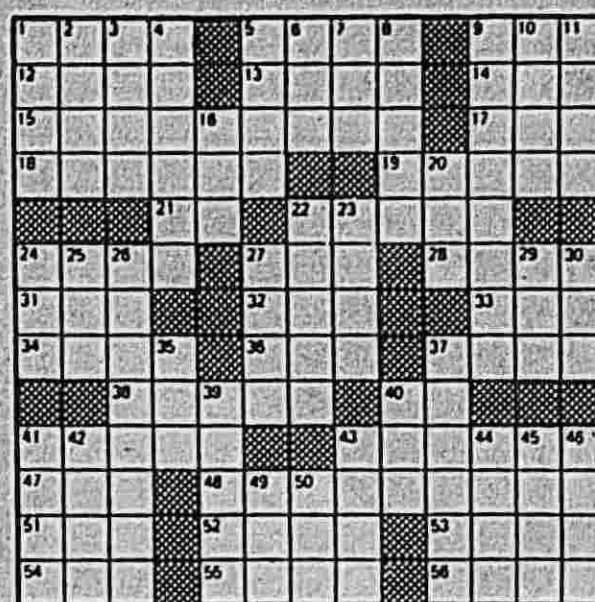

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) It is not a good idea to lend money to others now. What others think is a sure thing is not so at all. Couples are of one mind this week. Make plans together. Avoid dubious financial involvements with others.

St. Kitts The Friendly Island

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

While many of you were experiencing the first taste of winter, I was enjoying 90 degree sunny days on the island of St. Kitts. (Gee I love this job!)

Pleasant weather was not all I found on my first visit to this Eastern Caribbean Island.

Among St. Kitts greatest treasures has to be her people. They are among the friendliest anywhere. It's easy to see they love their Island and want to show it off to visitors. Even the cab ride from the airport became a narrated tour.

By the way, your cab driver will gladly take you on a half-day tour of the island. ($15 per person should cover it.)

There are some things missing on St. Kitts. Crime, for example, is virtually non-existent. So unlike some other Caribbean islands, feel free to take that moonlit stroll along the beach at night.

Also missing are beggars, street vendors and pushy straw-market "runners". In fact, you may almost feel neglected with no one trying to sell you something or wanting to braid your hair.

I stayed at a small resort called Sun & Sand on Frigate Bay right along a white sand beach that stretched for miles. Accommodations ranged from studio apartments, with complete kitchens to two bedroom cottages. A grocery store, gift shop and open air restaurant, serving a great herb-coated Mahi Mahi, were also on the property. By the way, those colorful little birds that land on your table will not leave without a small food offering. (Also don't be surprised if a monkey runs across your path, as they too, are common on this unique island!)

If you're looking for a little more action, just up the beach is Jack Tar village complete with casino and nightclub.

Other ways to visit St. Kitts are by cruise ship from San Juan. For the adventurous, St. Kitts is one of the ports visited by the famous Windjammer Sailing Ships.

Thanksgiving tradition at the Country Squire

When November winds begin to blow and a nip is in the air, it's a sure sign that Thanksgiving day and the holidays will be here sooner than we think. Remember trips to Grandma's house and the bird that had to be plucked, singed and everyone got anatomy 101 on the heart, kidneys, and then the bird had to be stuffed and cooked, and grandma spent days and hours preparing for the gathering that parents, aunts, uncles, cousins all came and you spent the entire day re-hashing good times? Well, we're more mobile now, moving around and a lot of families would like to get together, but who wants to go to all that bother?

Well, why not invite them all anyway, but instead of doing all the cooking let the chefs at the Country Squire do the work? Just tell us how many are coming and the time you wish to have dinner. That way you can all enjoy each other before and after dinner without any work or cleaning up. We'll slice and carve the bird for you, but if you want to keep the family tradition going you can carve the bird and do the servings yourself.

And of course, there'll be salads, whipped and sweet potatoes, vegetables, beverages, desserts and everything that goes with Thanksgiving. And you can have seconds later on too, since we'll pack up all the leftovers to take home with you.

This is for groups of six or more only and will be in our banquet building just around the corner from the Sears mansion.

In the mansion, we'll be serving full seven course dinners or roast turkey, leg of lamb and baked ham. Or you can choose from our regular menu.

Don't forget too, that now's the time to book your holiday parties regardless of size. Reservations are going fast. And speaking of reservations, don't forget your Thanksgiving reservations should be made now, before all the choice times are sold out! Call the Country Squire at 223-0121 for reservations or any questions you have. And if you're in the area, take time out for a stroll through our fall gardens!

Budgetel Inns break ground

GURNEE—Budgetel Inns, Inc., a national economy lodging chain, began construction on a property in Gurnee. Located near the outside gate of Six Flags Great America, south of Grand Avenue at 5688 Ridge Road, the 106-room property is expected to open in the spring. According to Gail Svendsen of Lake County Illinois's Convention and Visitor's Bureau, the Budgetel will be an integral part of the county's tourism industry. "We look forward to working with Budgetel to accomplish our objective of attracting midwestern leisure and motorcoach visitors," said Svendsen. "Budgetel's convenient distance from Milwaukee and Chicago draws upon two strong markets.

Business savvy pays off for advertising firm

Helen Olsen is an entrepreneur. She can prove it. Last month she was inducted into the Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame in Chicago.

The Hall is under the direction of the University of Illinois at Chicago and is co-sponsored by the Arthur Anderson Enterprise Group, LaSalle National Bank, the Reliable Corporation and William Blair & Co.

Years ago, Olsen worked for a promotional company that decided they no longer wanted to be involved in that aspect of business.

"I still wanted to do it so I started my own company. Another girl and I became partners," she said. "Since the company wasn't doing that kind of work any more all the other people started coming over."

Olsen bought out her partner several years ago and now is president of H. Olsen & Co. Inc., providing a complete range of fulfillment services for local and national advertisers. The company is located in a 65,000 square-foot facility in Libertyville.

"We handle all kinds of mailings, rebates, contests, sweepstakes, premiums, promotions, telemarketing, credit card processing," she said. "Anything you want to do, we do it all under one roof."

The company includes a group of subsidiaries: Olsen Marketing, Can America and Custom Mc Apparel.

Olsen, who resides in Green Oaks, is also a member of the board of the Promotional Marketing and Advertising.

Epifanio plans success for Century 21 Express

by CLAUDIA M. LENART
Lakeland Newspapers

Motorists driving on Rte. 83 through Antioch may have noticed a sign on the Century 21 Express office marquee, "Look who's turned 21. Congratulations Joe and Kim." Well, actually Joe Epifanio is 33 years old. The sign refers to his switch from ReMax to Century 21.

Epifanio is now the broker at Century 21 Express and has taken over management of the office with his partner and wife Kim. The aggressive Realtor said he has big plans for the office which include remodeling, computerization, and extensive training programs.

"Our goal is to enhance the image and professionalism of the office," said Epifanio. "Our agents will work together as a team." He is also actively recruiting new agents.

Epifanio said he's an advocate of ongoing training and that is one of the reasons he chose to continue his career with Century 21. "One of the things that makes Century 21 stand out is that it is the top in the industry in training. You have the right to make it here," he said. Epifanio said he recently returned from fire ravaged Orange County, California where he attended a Century 21 management fast track program.

Epifanio brings to Century 21 Express, a solid record of achievement in real estate sales. His sales for this year will be $10 million. At the ReMax Advantage Realty office, he was the top Illinois producer for three of his four years there.

Despite Epifanio's success, he hadn't always planned to be a Realtor. Although his father, Joe Epifanio, Sr., is a successful Realtor in Chicago, Epifanio planned to go into insurance.

"In insurance it takes a few years before you start making money. I got into real estate to supplement my income. Then I started making money and abandoned the idea of insurance. I became quite successful."

So Joe Epifanio, Jr. ended up following in his father's footsteps. He attributes the success the Epifanios have experienced to their commitment to customer service. "We believe a handshake goes a long way. We believe in giving people what we promise and more," said Epifanio.

Customer service for Epifanio can go as far as jumping in a lake to make a sale. Epifanio has sold a lot of waterfront property and once when a potential buyer questioned the depth of a lake, Epifanio and the seller jumped into the lake to prove the depth. "I ended up selling that piece of property that day," said Epifanio.

Wood store to show toys being assembled

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

Santa and his elves will be making toys for the kids at the Mueller-Wood Kraft, Inc. in Lake Villa.

Santa and his elves will be there from noon to 4 p.m. on Nov. 28, Dec. 5, 12 and 19 and there is no charge. The kids will get to see toys being assembled in front of their eyes.

"We got the idea from one of our customers who said we made her kids Christmas with a wooden toy she bought," Wood said. "We have been working on the idea and didn't know if we could get the help."

All the toys are made and assembled in the store. Some of the items for sale in the back workshop area will be wooden cars and trucks, trains, child's tables and chairs, model houses and wagons.

To help with assembly, girl scouts have agreed to help put together the final pieces of some products.

"The girl scouts are going to be the elves. The girl scouts are looking forward to doing it," Wood said.

The idea is really for the really young kids ages 1 and 1/2 to 5 to enjoy and see Santa Claus. "It should be a lot of fun," Wood said.

If there are any questions call Mueller-Wood at 395-0005.

Book nook carries many treasures to be discovered

by SUZIE REED
Lakeland Newspapers

Sometimes finding a good book requires a bit of a search. In one area of Vernon Hills, it requires more of an expedition.

First you locate the Baskin-Robbins Ice Cream store in Hawthorn Village Commons then walk past the New China

Entrepreneur

Restaurant and the Coldwell Banker Realty office as you come to the end of the strip you'll finally see it hidden around the corner — Annie's Book Stop.

In that location for almost 10 years, the shop was originally part of a franchise that went bankrupt a couple of years ago. Each store was offered for sale and given the option of keeping the name.

When Liz Sprague saw the "For Sale" sign, it was a dream come true.

"You know how you ask yourself 'if you won the lottery, what would you do?'; well, I'd buy a bookstore," she said. "When we saw the sign, my husband said, 'Liz, you're drooling!'"

Liz and Rick bought the store last December.

"I had been a patron of this store when I lived in Mundelein," said Liz. The couple now lives in Gurnee.

She had worked in libraries all through school and had a part time job in the University of Illinois Library in the acquisitions department, by her own admission an avid reader "dabbling" in the book business.

Annie's Book Stop is primarily a used paperback book store and exchange. Customers may bring in books they have read and receive credit of one-sixth the cover price. Books are sold for one-half the cover price; the older the book, the better deal!

Sprague does carry a limited selection of new paperbacks at a 10 percent discount, mostly mysteries and children's books.

With over 26,000 books in stock, the store has something for everyone and is meticulously organized so titles are easily located.

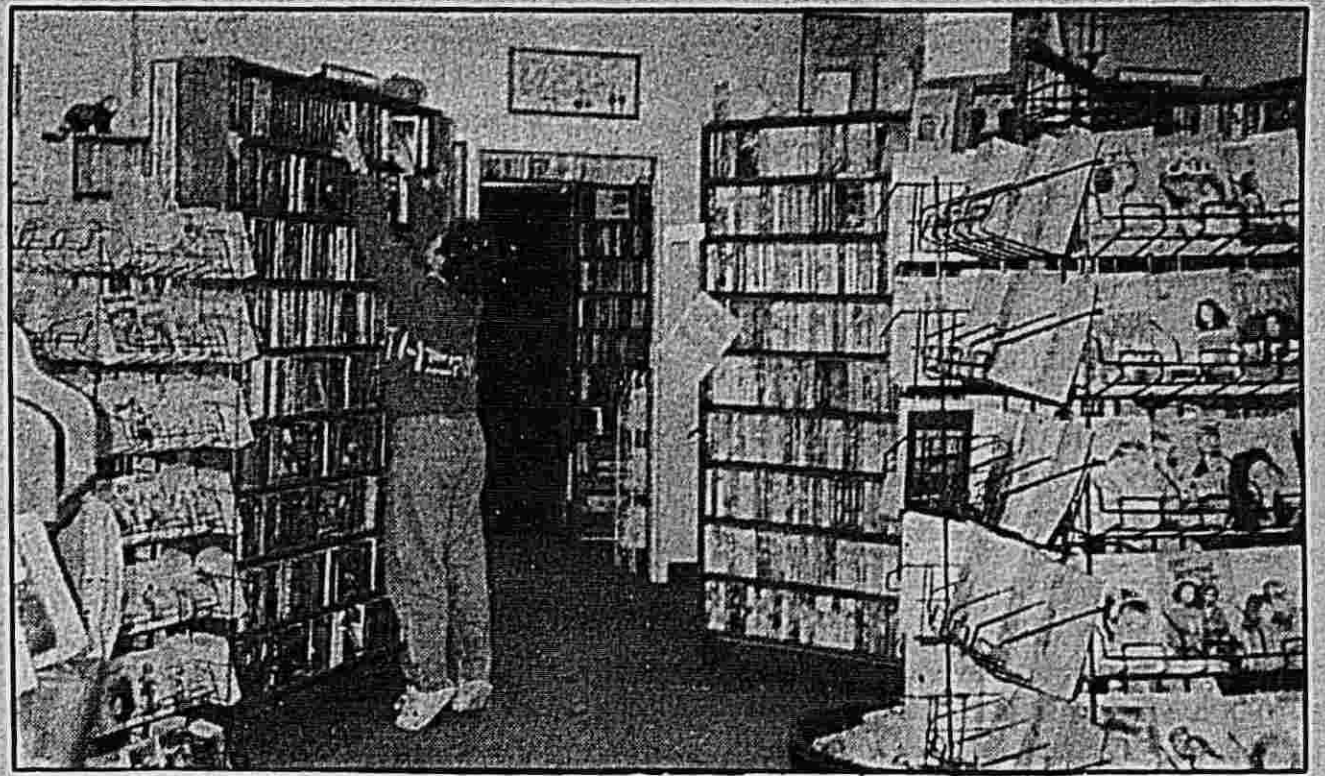

"When people read a lot they can outstrip the library and they can't afford Crown or Dalton's," she said. "This brings down the cost of their reading."

Sometimes Sprague can't give credit on a particular book because of the condition or because she has too many copies already.

"I feel bad when that happens," she said.

Sprague has gotten to know many of the "regulars" and enjoys the discussions that result from these acquaintances.

"You get to know people after a while," she said. "There's one lady with a bag of murder mysteries every week. Teachers come in to get books for their students."

Annie's Book Stop offers a 10 percent discount for senior citizens on Tuesday. Sprague plans to order a number of new titles in large print.

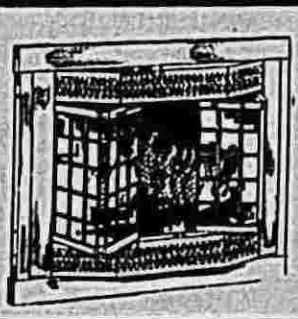

After the purchase of 10 books readers may select one free. The in-store credit issued on exchanges is good for a year.

Business hours at Annie's Book Stop, 268 Hawthorn Village Commons, are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. The shop is closed on Monday. It is located near Walgreen's at the west end of the strip down from Mail Boxes Etc.

Walgreens, WMX offer good investment potential

Walgreens(WAG)—This Deerfield based drugstore operator is the premier company in its field, with over 1,800 stores in 30 United States and Puerto Rico. What's more impressive is that the number of stores continues to expand towards a target of 3,000 by the year 2000. Most recently the company added new stores in Indianapolis and Spokane, Wash.

It was announced that same store sales increased 5.4 percent while total sales increased 10.4 percent. Another positive announcement by analysts was that the new health care legislation should be positive for the drug stores, as more people will have coverage now.

The company has seen earnings growth of 13 percent on average over the last five years, and in accordance, raised the dividend 13 percent to $.17 per quarter for a recent yield of 1.6 percent.

Given the companies solid management and technological advances, as well as new stores being ahead of target, WAG is rated a buy with a 12 month price target of $48 from its recent 42 7/8.

WMX Technologies (WMX)—Most people know this company as WMX or Waste Management or more

Investment Trends

by Noah A. Seidenberg

importantly, the company who picks up your garbage on Tuesday!

WMX has been in the news after this sector leader was rocked by a slight earnings under performance. After the street expected earnings of between $.44 and $.46, WMX came back with only $.39 for the quarter, sending the stock down nearly $.5. Recently trading near the $.24 range, this could be an excellent buying opportunity, as the fundamentals remain the same.

One of the reasons that the earnings disappointment can be explained is that analysts were expecting a 20 percent growth rate per year, while they have since been re-evaluated to 10 to 15 percent.

The company has good diversity with operations around the U.S., in Australia, Europe, and Kuwait. With earnings and cash flow good, this stock is now undervalued with an expected price target of $40 per share, this is in addition to its present 2.5 percent dividend.

Bosnians, picks dominate pre-season

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

OK, I admit it. It is my favorite sound.

Whether it be mid-afternoon, Sunday night, or early morning, there is nothing like that boing-boing sound of basketballs being dribbled by teenagers with thoughts of the state finals dancing in their heads.

Ah, yes, pre-season.

Some observations from compiling 27 of the 28 pre-views from Richmond to Lincolnshire as the 1993-94 season unfolds next week for boys, this week for girls:

Two area teams will have to cope with tall, talented Bosnian national players on opposing rosters. Both Lake Zurich coach Doug Cook and Richmond-Burton Coach John Stanczykiewicz don't like the idea.

"I agree with Bill (Barry, Marengo coach). It will upset the balance of power," the Richmond mentor said. Richmond could look to fade the junior Olympians seven times this season.

"But I can't worry about the Bosnians. I have to worry about making Richmond basketball the best it can be," Szykiewicz said.

Cook said he found the

Overtime

Bosnian presence "very disturbing the way they shopped the players around to the various schools. It is blatant recruiting," Cook said.

Three new coaches join our ranks. Don Pieper is the new coach at Wauconda; Ben Berg at Carmel and Chuck Ramsey at Warren.

Ramsey, who took over from retired Darrel Bader, played his prep ball in Johnson City, Ill. He was not the leading scorer.

"Not being a great player kept me in the game. I was still hungry," Ramsey said. Ramsey amassed nine North Suburban Conference titles and 253-81 record in nine sophomore seasons.

Berg takes over for Scott Rosberg. Berg coached in Sheybohan, Wis., before coaching the sophs and frosh for five years in Mundelein. I'll miss Scott's battles with his mentor, former Coach Frank Belmont, now at Waukegan.

Respect.

That's what Grant Coach Tom Maple wants for the Northwest Suburban Conference. He is tired of the NWSC champ seeded 12th or 13th and playing on the road against a team with lesser wins. "How fair is it to have a school of 800 enrollment go up against a school with 3,000 enrollment. I can see a match-up of the first seed and the ninth seed and the second seed against the 10th," Maple said.

Opening night: the girls opened Tuesday with Warren beating Lake Zurich by 20 points and Richmond-Burton winning by 10, but Antioch, Round Lake, Grant and Carmel all lost.

Lisa Sinnokrak is a player to watch for Warren. Fleet of foot, she scored 23 points.

Felicia Sortin burned the nets for 31 points in Round Lake's 60-55 loss to Harvard in overtime. "She did a nice job and was 15-for-21 from the field," RL Coach Gary Edge said.

Conference boys champs predictions: Grayslake in the Northwest, Mundelein in the North Suburban, Carmel to finish fifth in the ESCC and Richmond fifth in the Big Eight.

Girls winners: Round Lake in the NWSC, Stevenson in the NSC.

Good: remember that boing sound is my favorite. An unsuspecting North Chicago player gave this reporter a basketball, and showed him where the three-point line is (although that was not necessary). Good.

Sequoits to display a diversified attack

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch High School Boys Basketball looks to improve upon last year's 5-22 record and make significant strides with a diverse scoring attack.

"I believe we can put four or five guys on the floor who can score, coach Jeff Dresser said. "We don't have to depend on one guy to score 40 points a night. We want all five players to be unselfish and play team basketball."

Dresser said the confidence of the team will be key to how well it will handle the adversity of a rigorous North Suburban Conference competition.

"Confidence is very important in game situations. I saw it coming together in the summer leagues. Last year we lacked some confidence. If the guys play well and are decisive the confidence will be there and we will be ok," Dresser said.

To help with pressure situations are five returning lettermen. They are 6-7 forward Eric Eckenstahler, 6-3 guard Dave Johnson, 6-0 guard Tony Kucharski and 6-6 center Sean Noland. Dresser indicated the seniors are going to have to show leadership with 10 juniors on the squad.

One player who is missing is Jeff Woods, the teams leading scorer who transferred to Warren. Dresser said he is going to concentrate on the 15 players he does have and not concentrate on who isn't there.

"We have five seniors on the team. We expect them to come in and carry their weight this year," Dresser said.

The Sequoits will have to work hard on the boards to compensate for their lack of height.

"Rebounding is a big key. Because we don't have to many big kids we need to hit the boards hard," Dresser said.

Antioch proves quick study

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch High girls varsity basketball coach Dave Woods saw several positives as he watched the videotape of the season-opener against Crystal Lake Central Wednesday morning.

"We played well in areas. We just gave up too many turnovers and unforced errors," Woods said.

The end result was a 47-41 loss to Crystal Lake Central Tuesday. "We were in the game the whole way," Woods said.

Amy Leiber, a 5-9 senior, led the way with 12 points and Maline Gooch added eight. A 15-4 run by the Tigers in the second quarter gave the Sequoits a deficit they could not overcome. "They went to a 2-2-1 press and it took us a while to adjust to it," Woods said. "For the first game, I was extremely pleased."

Prior to his debut as head coach, Woods said the team was responding well to the new offenses and defenses after coming off a struggling five-win season.

Juniors include Rachel Hauser, who had four points against Central; Lindsay Haldnik, a 5-5 guard, who both should help a lot, Woods said.

Sophs providing depth are: 5-5 guard Julie Case, 5-5 guard-forward Mary Ipsen; 5-5 guard-forward Marge Klepacki and 5-5 guard-forward Ellen Manderscheid.

Smooth transition for Carmel

The first transition to a new head boys basketball coach in eight years at Carmel went according to plan.

"It was very smooth. Scott (former coach Rosberg) found out about his new job in Montana in June. I was able to coordinate the summer league play at Deerfield and Stevenson and the varsity camp here," new coach Ben Berg said.

Berg, former freshmen and sophomore level coach at CHS, takes over from Rosberg and has a new staff as the Corsairs head into the new season.

Carmel is coming off an 12-win season last year and must replace Jermaine Williams. Or maybe the word should be remember Williams.

"You do not replace Williams. Maybe three or four players will be able to step up," Berg said. Williams is now at Lake Forest College.

"We have been placing a lot of emphasis on toughening up," Berg said.

The Corsairs use pads, not unlike football, to beef up for the season opener. Indeed, rebounding is key word these days at Carmel as it is one of the areas which will determine whether or not Berg's debut season will be a happy one.

Leading the way could be senior Landon Rose. He is six-foot, 165 and has gotten stronger since last year when he averaged 10 points and six rebounds a game.

Dan Stasiek, a three-year varsity player, is back with defense as his specialty.

Senior point guard Tom Drennan, 6-0, 149, has shown leadership and is the team's threat from three-point range. Also back at the guard is 6-1, 164 Brian Buckingham.

Rick Koseor, the Corsairs' outstanding player in the secondary in football, returns. He attended two off-season shooting camps.

"The ball skills carry over from football to basketball. He has worked hard in the weight room and is a very-good defensive player," Berg said.

A new player to watch could be sophomore Paul Fritsch. A 5-11, 159 pounder, he is a sharp shooter from the outside.

Berg plans to use his team's quickness. "It will be more situational than last year," he said.

Although Carmel played well enough at the end of last year to gain a home game for the post-season regional, the Corsairs struggled in the East Suburban Catholic Conference, finishing 4-9.

Kessel, experienced MHS players set to show talents

When Mundelein High boys basketball team takes the floor this year, MHS fans will expect to see Kyle Kessel distributing the basketball every which way to another record-setting year of assists.

But Kessel driving to the basket. But Kessel popping them in from the perimeter?

Yes, and Mustang basketball fans can expect to see those skills and more from the 6-foot, 160 pound senior guard.

"He was in a back brace for five months and did not do anything, but everything went to his chest. His range has improved and he is much stronger," Coach Dennis Kessel said of his son.

Kyle Kessel, last year's Lakeland Newspapers Most Valuable Player as Mundelein won 20 games and a regional title, leads the North Suburban Conference favorite Mustangs.

The Mustangs return the same lineup which lost to Libertyville in the sectional title game last March plus Sean Stackhouse. Stackhouse is a 5-11 junior guard from North Chicago.

"Sean has made adjustments. He is a very personable kid. He has fit right in and will be fine," Coach Kessel said.

"Experience should be a factor. We have some pretty talented players," Coach Kessel said.

The 1993 Mundelein Mustang Boys Basketball Team.

The Mustangs' starting lineup includes three-year varsity players Kessel and 6-5, 190 pound center Thad Miller.

Also back to bang for rebounds is Brian McMahon, a 6-1, 190 pound junior forward. "He can bench press more, but we have not noticed that on the court," Coach Kessel said.

Gerald Coleman, whom Coach Kessel said is more mature this year, is back as a 6-0, 165 pound forward.

"We have some players off the bench who are quick and aggressive on defense," Coach Kessel said.

Wade Arnold, Mundelein's all-conference football standout, is a 5-10, 175 pound senior forward. "We are really happy to get Wade. He works hard," the coach said.

Another football player, Doug Healy, is a 6-2, 200 pound junior center.

Erik Tonkery, at 6-5, 200, will back-up center position. Matt Weitzel, a reserve on last year's team is back at forward and is the team's tallest at 6-8.

Mundelein will not be home for its usual Thanksgiving tourney, instead making trips to Rockford.

"We hate to lose our tournament, but the Rockford Boylan tournament will give us early tests and that is what we need," Coach Kessel said.

As far as the NSC goes, Coach Kessel said look out for Zion-Benton and Gregg Adams. "And do not overlook North Chicago," he said.

Mustang girls look to blend youth, experience this year

The qualities would, at first glance, appear to be mutually exclusive.

"We are a very solid, young, veteran club," Coach Rick Foss said as another practice unfolded. "We are very fortunate to have a nice mix of four seniors and five juniors. I have 13 young ladies right now, with 10 who could start interchangeably and not have a substantial difference in production," Foss said.

That combination leads to some lofty goals for Mundelein at season's start.

"Our goal is to finish high in the North Suburban Conference and to win 20 games. I would be disappointed with a .500 season," Foss said.

And this coming from a team which was 8-17 last year. The Mustangs won the Wauconda summer league with a 6-0 mark.

"It was not just that we were 6-0, but our play in working together," Foss said.

Some of the reasons for Foss's optimism:

Lindsey Prezell: the junior was all-conference last year at 13.7 points a game. "We are looking at her to score, but she also passes the ball well. She was our leader in assists last year," Foss said.

Junior Lynn T'Niemi, five-foot, four inch guard, scored eight points a game last year and has played since her freshman year. "She is our inspirational team leader," Foss said.

Kandace Kessel, a 5-8 junior, is switching positions this year. "Her natural position is point guard. In the past, we had to use her jumping ability as a forward. She handles the ball real well," Foss said.

Tiffany Campbell, a 5-8 senior forward, is "tenacious" defensively, Foss commented.

Her sister, Tony, is a 5-9 sophomore forward.

Kelsey MacCalum, a 5-9 center, is a senior who was the team's second-leading rebounder last year.

Lisa Pogachnik, a 5-8 senior forward as well, brings some new weapons to her arsenal. "Lisa has gained a lot of aggressiveness and confidence," Foss said.

Nancy Duval, a transfer from Jacobs, is the Mustangs' outside shooting threat.

Another player who will keep the defenses honest is Vanessa Wasik, a 5-8 guard. "She has a great outside shot and a great deal of confidence," Foss said.

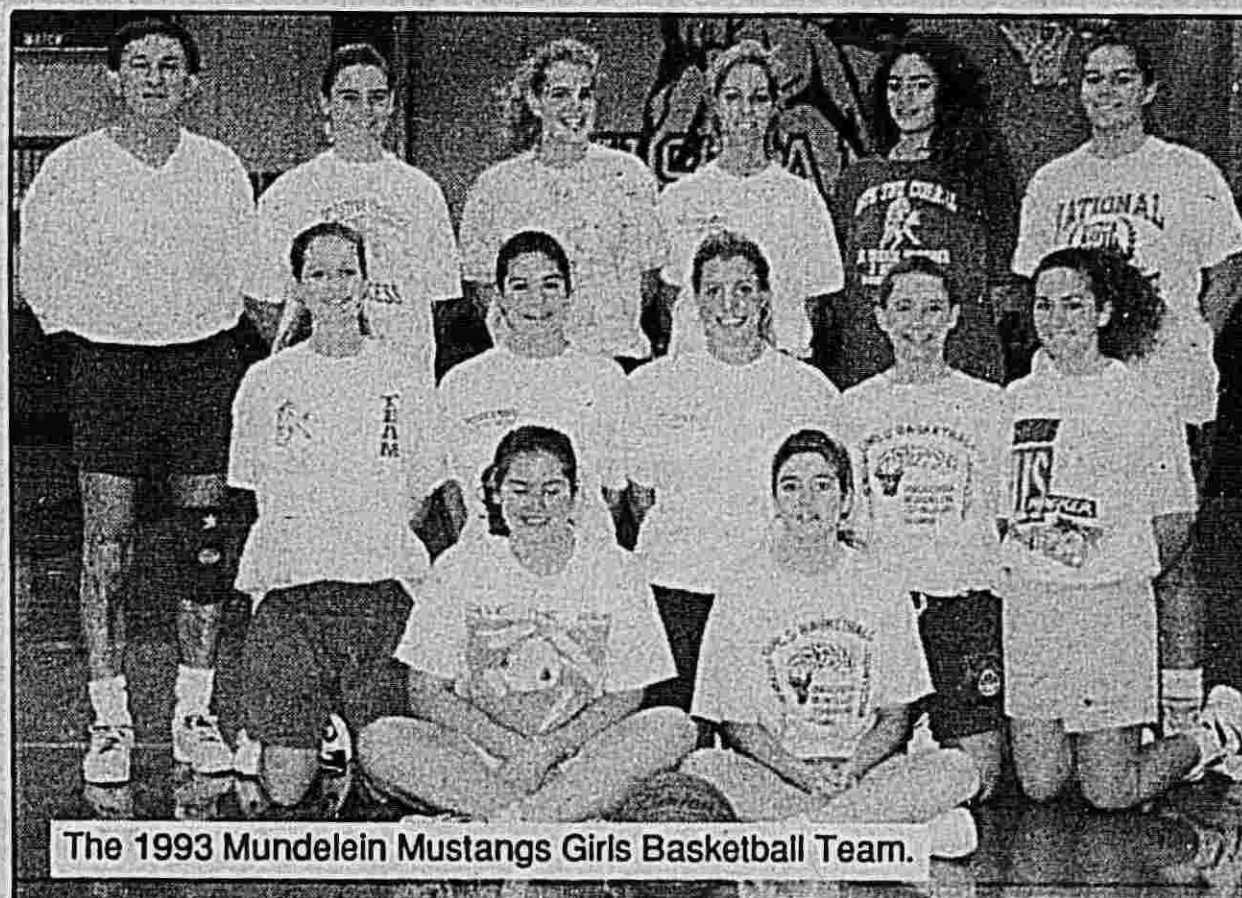

Also looking to contribute are juniors: 5-5 guard Mandy Miller, 5-8 forward Stephanie Parker and 5-9 center Danita Browne.

The Mustangs open the season Nov. 20 at their own Thanksgiving tourney and would like nothing better than to wrestle the title from annual winner Warren.

Mundelein draws Libertyville for its first North Suburban Conference test Nov. 30. Libertyville and Stevenson have been ranked in area pre-season polls.

"Warren will have a good team and Zion-Benton is a very solid team. The NSC is extremely tough this year," Foss said.

Blue Devils ready for new era under Ramsey

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

In automobile showrooms, symptoms are surprised new or used car buyers. It used to be known as Sticker Shock.

At Warren Township High School and the surrounding Gurnee area, the symptoms are momentary bulging of the eyes as one reads "Boys Basketball" on the schedule card.

"It will be weird not seeing Darrel Bader on the sideline," the fans are saying.

"Schedule Card Shock" is indeed a very curable disease.

Add a dose of tough defense, newcomers blending together, a healthy sampling of rebounding, a new head coach who had his winning ways at 5:30 p.m. starts at the sophomore level and Warren fans should become accustomed to Head Coach Chuck Ramsey before March dawns.

"I don't think there will be a drastic difference in the way we play. There was not just one way. In the past, if we had quickness, we would be up tempo. If we had height, we would play the half-court game," Ramsey said. "We adjusted to what the players did best."

Warren welcomes Jeff Woods into the fold this year. Woods, a 5-11 guard, regularly scored in the 30-point neighborhood for a 5-22 Antioch team. "He should be a solid contributor to the team," Ramsey said.

"We will be very inexperienced. All of our top seven players last year were seniors. But the players have worked hard in the spring and in two summer leagues," Ramsey said.

Juniors Joe Bongratz, six-foot, four-inch forward, and 6-3 Dan Ulvila and Joe Merrick are the tallest Blue Devils.

Junior Joel Dangel and senior Eric Murtha are among those vying for guard position time. "Murtha is the top student in his class and very steady. Dangel is quick," Ramsey said.

Showing some signs of shooting from the perimeter, a la Mark Leginski, are se-

Tim Marabella, 6-0 and 6-0 Derek Ramsden, are post candidates.

"I am looking for us to develop as a solid team," Ramsey said, adding there are keys to the season.

"We have to be able to rebound with bigger and stronger people and play together. It's got to mesh," he said.

Libertyville and Mundelein, with all their returning starters from the sectional finals clash last year, are the odds-on favorites in the North Suburban Conference. "Zion-Benton and Stevenson are also contenders," Ramsey said.

Warren sophs ready to help varsity girls make run

It is a cliché, yes, but one that applies to Warren Township High School's girls basketball team.

The best thing about freshmen? They become sophomores.

Warren will be looking to a sophomore as one of its key ingredients as the Blue Devils seek to regain post-season success.

Returning is Julie Minuskin, a five-foot, seven inch forward who was the second-leading scorer on last year's squad at 12 points per game.

"She attended a lot of camps and played in two summer leagues. She will have to step up and replace Marlene," Coach Bruce Campbell said, referring to last year's leading scorer, Marlene Elfering.

Two other sophs who played on the junior varsity team as freshmen also look to contribute. They are 5-6 guard Janay Hanlin, sister of former Warren player Justin Hanlin and 6-1 center Amy Ludovice. "She has come a long way," Campbell said of Ludovice.

Warren returns last year's leading rebounder, 5-11 senior forward Erin Webster.

Other seniors back are: 5-7 guard Lisa Sinnokrak; 5-7 guard Pam Brown and 5-10 forward Jamie Gruenwald, a volleyball standout.

Juniors are: 5-9 forward Amy Jesen, 5-9 forward Megan Roush, 5-7 guard Kim Terrian and 5-4 guard Jodi Botsford.

Kim Sheptak, a 5-8 swing person, and a sectional swimmer, also returns.

"We will have to mold our players to get some continuity," Campbell said.

The Blue Devils may not have made sectionals for the first time in several years last year, but 1992-93 team had its high points. "We won two tournaments and had 19 wins. We came within a last-second shot of making it to sectionals," Campbell said.

Libertyville and Stevenson figure to clash for the North Suburban Conference title, but other teams such as Mundelein, Lake Forest and Zion-Benton are talented.

"The conference is very strong," he said.

One question mark for conference teams

is the status of early games with North Chicago. As the first week of practice opened, the Dec. 4 league opener against the Warhawks seemed in jeopardy due to the teachers' strike at NCCHS.

Warren will be looking to start the year, following a first game with Lake Zurich, the way it has since 1987 - win the Mundelein Thanksgiving tourney.

Warren has two new assistant coaches this year. Ann Gebhardt, a former Lake Forest standout, is the freshmen coach with Andy Brown her assistant. Collette Urbach returns to coach the junior varsity.

Experience important ally for Grayslake Rams

When Grayslake Rams boys basketball team finds itself in nail-biting games this year, the Rams will have the "E" word on their side.

That is, experience.

The Rams return four starters plus the sixth man who played key roles in gaining a second-place tie in the Northwest Suburban Conference last year.

"We have four starters back and that should help us in close games," Geoff Sponholtz said.

"Most of us were working last year toward this year," Brian Stech, last year's sixth man, said.

The Rams also return Jay Horvath, a 6-2 senior forward and Dave Mandrella, a 5-11 guard. Indeed, there the Rams lead the league in asterisks, donating letterwinners, in pre-season rosters.

"It's fun, it is always fun," Coach Greg Groth said as another practice started. "We have an enthusiastic group that can draw a lot of charges, has good shooting ability and works hard. It is nice to see them complement each other and progress," Groth said.

Groth is shooting for the Rams second NWSC title in his tenure. He said with the depth of talent the Rams have, fans Mandrella brings the most firepower to the lineup as he is coming off a 17.0 points-per-game season. Sponholtz, who can hurt you inside outside, was at 15 points a game, Todd Alfred at seven and Horvath five.

"We have six to eight guys going for the sixth spot on the roster," Groth said.

Jason Madole, a 6-6, 195 pound center, is the tallest Ram.

Forwards looking to contribute include: 6-4 junior Michael Paul, 6-0 junior Pete Neuberger, 6-4 junior John Parr, 6-3 junior Brian Fischer. Senior forwards are: 6-4 Mike Higgins; 6-1 John Miller.

Pats ready to defend crown

The resumes read like a Who's Who of girls basketball.

No less than six all-North Suburban Conference players will take the floor plus a freshmen whom Coach Frank Mattucci says you won't want to miss see play for the Stevenson girls basketball team.

That, coupled with the fact the team is guided by a coach who has won more than 80 percent of his games, and one can understand why hopes and yes, expectations are running high in Lincolnshire.

Back for starters are Tauja Catchings and Danielle Mall, both of whom scored 411 points last season.

"She is our captain, our team leader and she has improved," Coach Frank Mattucci said of Mall.

Catchings is, of course, the older sister of frosh Tamika Catchings. Tauja is 5-10, Tamika 6-0.

"Tamika is one of the greatest players I have ever coached. She has all the tools and is very unselfish. She is a perfectionist, but she gets down on herself," Mattucci said.

The presence of the Catching sisters may make the offense a simple one: get the ball to Catchings.

Mattucci calls soph Tauja Catchings "one of the most underrated players in the area. She is tremendously quick and not too many people can stay with her one-on-one," Mattucci said.

Players who had moments of stardom last year are now sophs. Katie Coleman, a 5-10 guard-forward; Trish DeClark, a 5-7 guard, Christy Miller, a 5-3 guard are back along with Noelle Medenwaldt.

Pats regroup around Catchings

It may be time for basketball's version of culture shock in Lincolnshire.

The Stevenson Patriots as underdogs in the North Suburban Conference?

That's right, the same Pats teams which are usually mentioned in the same breath as league contenders. The reason: the "G" word: graduation.

"We only have one returning player from the top eight. There are a lot of unproved qualities," Stevenson Coach Ken Johnson said.

The one player back from an 18-10 season and another regional title is Kenyon Catchings, a 6-3, 174 pound forward. He played the first 10 games before stomach illness sidelined him until the final weeks. "He has been bearing up well. He was only healthy for about 10 games last year," Johnson said. "We expect him to make the big play. He is a solidifying factor," Johnson said.

Catchings, son of former NBA great Harvey Catchings, has two sisters on the Patriots girls squad.

Newcomers are led by a transfer student, Quintan Semicek, a senior 6-3 forward.

Among those vying for playing time are: seniors 6-2 forward Adam Berry; 6-4 center Jason Breuer; 6-1 forward Kevin Fredrick; 5-7 guard Kennan Legg; 5-11 guard Jerome Nolasco.

Juniors back are: 6-3 forward Tyler Hawkins; 6-1 forward Stormy Scott; 6-4 forward Brandon Williams and soph, 5-10 guard Ryan Keller.

'Cats poised to grab lead

Veteran Libertyville boys basketball coach Max Sanders knows one thing is certain about this year's pre-season practices.

"We are way ahead of where we were last year," Sanders said.

Of course, in 1992, no one knew how Matt Heldman, Jamie Carruthers and six more classmates would jell to within two points of playing in the Elite Eight.

The Wildcats are very much a known quantity in 1993-94.

"We are looking to build on last year's playoffs, but we know we have to hustle every night. The North Suburban Conference is a real good league. Three teams were picked in the top 25 of the Chicagoland area. The league is getting a lot of respect because of our finishes in the post-season tournament the last few years," Sanders said.

"He is a lot better now than at the end of last season," Sanders said of Heldman.

Along with sharp-shooting Heldman, is six foot-three, 190 pound Jayson Via.

'Cats have contender status

Libertyville girls basketball coach Tom Murphy appeared relaxed as another practice had just concluded.

And why not. The Wildcats are coming off a 24-6 Sweet Sixteen season, with three all-North Suburban Conference players ready to start a new season at the Buffalo Grove tourney.

"We have enough variety of talent that we should be able to play any game," Murphy said.

All-NSC forward-center Lindsey Celba returns with her three years of varsity experience and imposing 5-11 height.

Kelly Karl, headed to New Hampshire on a basketball scholarship, returns for the fourth year. She is a sparky 5-1 point guard.

Sarah Weiss announced during the first week of practice she will attend the

Rams ready to test offense

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Grayslake girls basketball Coach Paul Missavage and the Rams were ready to see how the new offenses and defenses work as the season-opener Thursday at Antioch approached.

"We seem to be prepared. It is a matter of going out and playing and seeing what you can do," Missavage said.

Missavage is the first new Rams coach in a decade, taking over from Brad Larson.

The Rams are at the Mundelein Thanksgiving tourney next week.

The Rams leadership role is paced by senior Jenny Dunbar, the county's leading three-point shooter last year. Dunbar returns to her familiar guard spot at five foot, five inches.

Jessica Cochran a 5-9 junior center is another who has shown leadership potential.

The Rams have several juniors who will play key roles under the new regime.

Kelly Roberts is a 5-9 forward; Tiffany Gutraj a 5-7 forward; and Julie Duchane a 5-7 forward.

Grant boys figure size top strength for campaign

Grant High's basketball team figures it probably will not have much of a problem scoring from close-range in the early going this season.

The Bulldogs, are led by 6-4 senior Mike Ingram, figure to make another run as defending Northwest Suburban Conference champions.

Also back to pound the boards are: 6-3 Kurt Filiatreault and 6-3 center Dan Dunlavy. Bill Richardson, a 6-5 center, was the leading scorer for the undefeated junior varsity team.

"The future is looking good for our size, but we have six guys going after 2.5 guard spots that are open," Grant Coach Tom Maple said. "All of our forwards and centers are big, strong and interchangeable."

The seniors, led by the aforementioned towers, bring some credible statistics as Grant prepares for the season-opening tourney at Harvard.

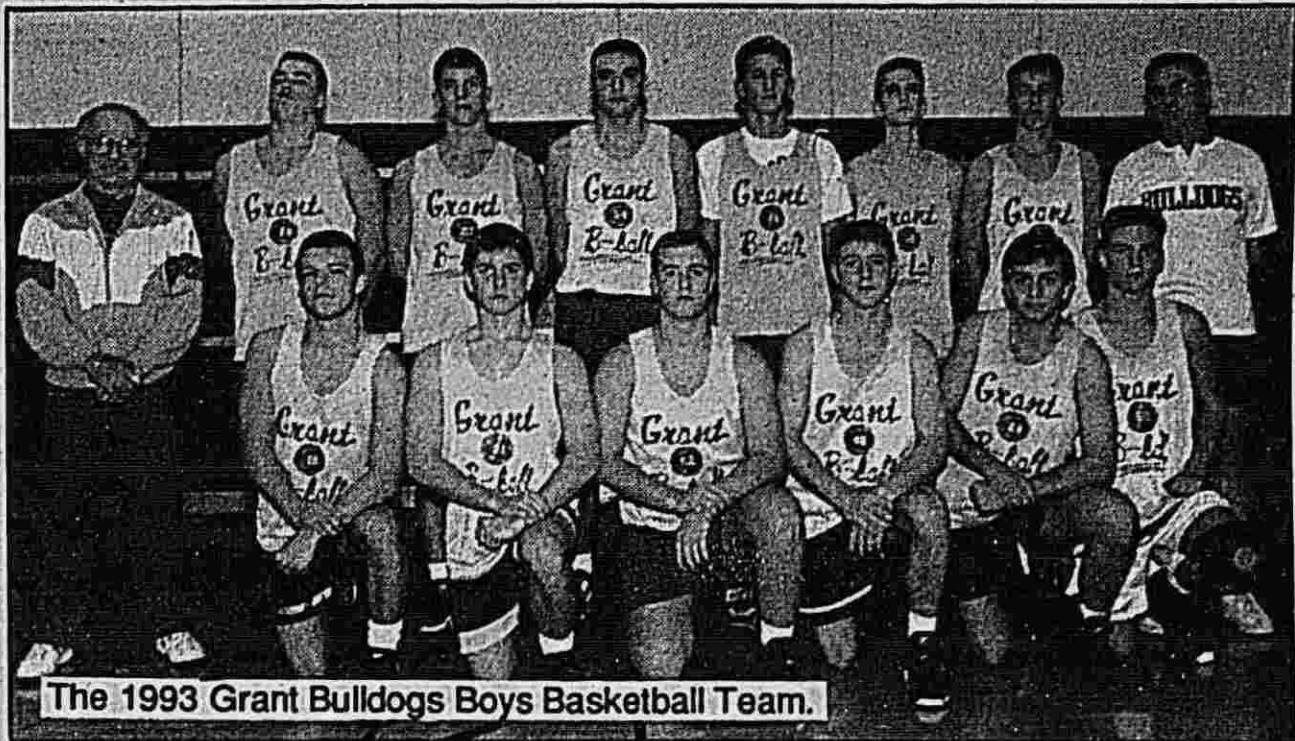

Ingram had 382 points, 206 rebounds, 31 assists, 32 recoveries, made 54 percent of his field goal tries, 73 percent from the free-throw line (and won his division at College of Lake County's annual tourney) and was all-conference. Filiatreault posted 184 points, 111 rebounds, 37 assists and 14 recoveries. He made nearly 70 percent of his field goals and better than 60 percent of his free throws in averaging 7.1 points a game.

The Bulldogs will miss NWSC MVP Tim Culotta, who sparked a second-half of the year rally to a 17-9 season record. Hoops fans in Fox Lake have been returning to see the Bulldogs light it up from long range, but that may not happen right away.

"We do not have any three-point shooters as of yet. Ingram is our best, but at 6-6, I do not think we can have him out there," Maple said.

Returning starters give hope

Last year at this time, was, well, hectic to say the least for Richmond-Burton boys basketball Coach John Stanczykiewicz.

"No doubt, it is going better. Having the football season end early is a bonus for basketball," the second-year coach said.

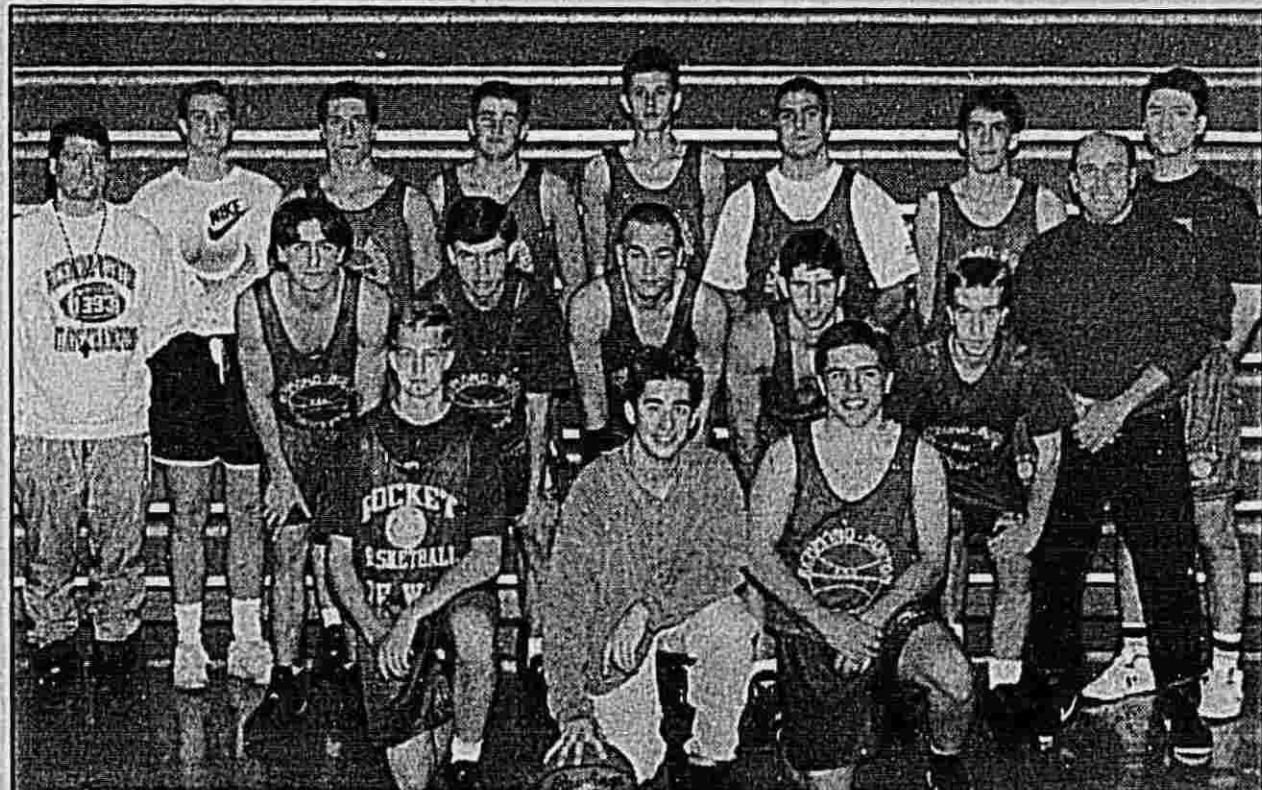

Last November, key basketball players were on their march to the Class 2A state title. The Rockets never really jelled as a team and finished 3-22 overall. This year, the football team was a respectable 5-4, but did not make the playoffs.

This gives the Richmond coaching staff more time to work with four returning starters. "Any time you have four starters back with significant playing time, you believe they begin to show improvement. They learned quite a few lessons last year and worked hard over the summer, making a commitment to play," Stanczykiewicz said.

Quality Richmond priority

Ten players may not seem like much to start a brand new basketball season with, but as far as Tom Lay is concerned, it is a matter of quality over quantity.

"All 10 players will play. If there is an injury, we can bring someone up from the sophomore team," he said.

The Rockets will be led by Heidi Rignier. The five-foot-eight inch senior forward averaged 10.2 points a game last year. Also back is 5-10 forward Kathy Benes. One name familiar to Lake County girls basketball fans, Natalie Gambit, a 5-10 senior guard, is also looking to contribute.

"Rignier is real strong and quick and has good hands and feet," Lay said.

Benes's specialty comes when the other team has the ball. "She plays inside post and will score, but her best ability is defense. Last year, she was assigned to the second-toughest player on the opponents' side. This year she will be assigned the opponents' toughest player," Lay said.

Allyson McNabb, a junior point guard, will be the Rockets outside shooting specialist. "At the end of last year, she was making more of her three-pointers than two-pointers," Lay said. "She has great court sense."

Seniors who may show leadership are 5-10 guard Julie Holian and 5-6 guard Robyn Banchak.

Juniors adding depth as the Rockets seek to get back to the regional final where they fell last year, are: 5-8 forwards Leslie Toler and Nicole Clark; 5-9 forward Stephanie Hunter and 5-6 guard Kristy Velhuizen.

Scorers step up for Bears

Lake Zurich boys basketball fans may be looking at new names as leading scorers this season.

The Bears return Derek Touchette, a 6-4 center-post player and junior Todd Brandell, who is a 6-2 post-wingman as the team tries to put another solid 16-win season together as it did in 1992-93.

"Those two players are the ones returning who scored any points," Coach Doug Cook said.

Also back for the Bears is junior point guard Pat DeVito, who played the second half of the year with the varsity.

Optimism is riding high as the Bears prepare to defend their Thanksgiving tourney title at Round Lake.

"We are trying to put things, together, but are a little banged up," Cook said.

Joining Touchette as returning seniors are: 6-1 post player Pete Whitfield; 6-0 wing man Raj Lal and 6-5 post player Steve Holm.

Juniors looking to contribute are Ryan

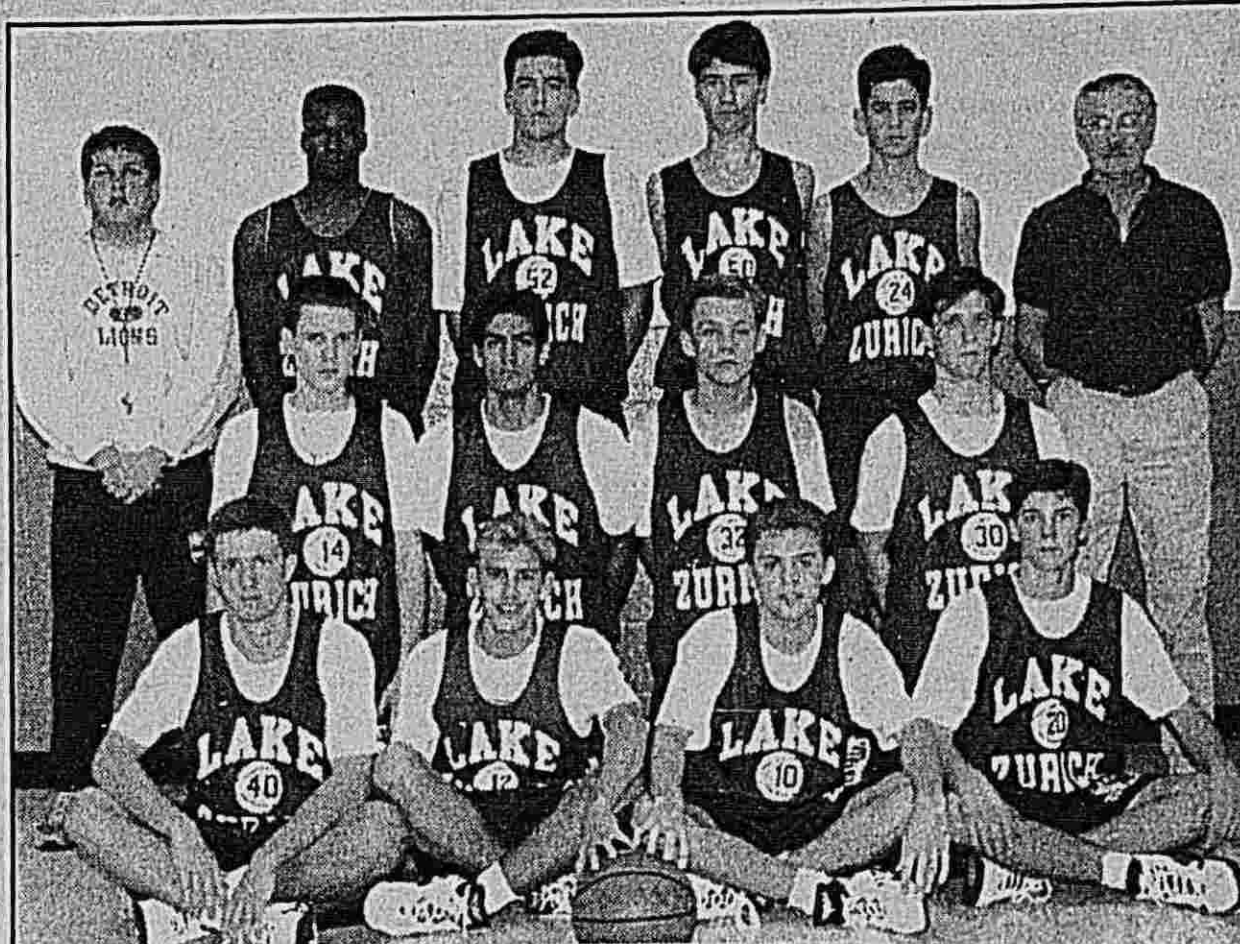

Schwede, a 5-10 wing player and John Gifford, also 5-10 at the wing.

Two sophs are on the roster this year. Jason Jacobs is a 6-1 point, wing player while Justin Block is a 5-9 point guard.

The Bears finished tied for fourth in the Fox Valley last year at 8-6. Crystal Lake South won the league title with an unbeaten record in 14 games. The Gators figure to be contenders again.

Bears aim for improvement

Lake Zurich Bears girls varsity basketball team may have been able to practice at a higher level during pre-season drills.

But that was B. W. - Before Warren. The Blue Devils, based on 23 points from Lisa Sinnokrak won the season opener 59-39.

"We were clumsy on offense," Bears Coach Cindy Snider said. "We have to shoot the ball much better."

Nicole Vasey, who played on the Prairie State Games gold medal winning team, was the target for Warren defenders. Her efforts were limited to the free-throw line, where she made 14-of-19 in a 20-point game. Senior guard Debbie Pope was the next highest Bear with eight points.

Seniors back for the Bears include: 5-4 guard Pinchot; 5-4 guard Jackie Basler; 5-6 guard Debbie Pope; 5-9 forward Trost; 5-8 guard Becky Krueger; 6-1 center Julie Rathke and Vasey.

Bulldogs shooting for title

Grant High's girls basketball team hopes speed will be an asset as the Bulldogs make another run for the Northwest Suburban Conference title.

"At this time of the year, you have high hopes. Speed and experience appear to be our strengths, but rebounding is something we will have to remedy," Coach John Schad said.

All three of Grant's top scorers from last year's NWSC runners-up - Vicki Nelson, Patty Owens and Chris Rowan, have graduated.

Seniors back include 5-10 forward Cindi Cook, guard 4-11 Tamy Schmitt. Vanessa Schramm, a 5-6 guard, is a junior on her third year on the varsity. "Her role last year was floormanship and defense. She has good common sense for basketball.

This year she will have the green light to shoot. She has improved her shot quite a bit," Schad said.

Junior Katie Klein is a 5-6 forward and another junior, Debbie Fischer, is a 5-9 center.

A sophomore looking to contribute is Niki Winchell, a 5-9 center.

Round Lake Girls the team to beat in NWSC

Basketball is not a complicated game of x's and o's. Just ask Round Lake girls basketball coach Gary Edge how he approaches the game.

"It is pretty simple. If you put the ball in the basket and play good defense, you will be OK," Edge said.

The Panthers, defending Northwest Suburban Conference champs, will put that theory to the test early. "We have a grueling schedule with four games in five days," Edge said.

After facing Harvard and Zion-Benton, it is off to the Deerfield Thanksgiving tourney.

"Last year, they were able to accept their roles and care for their responsibility on the team," Edge said.

Edge is looking for the 18-8 record for the 1993-94 contingent to be strong in rebounding and play close to the basket.

Nicole Pollard, a five-foot, 11 inch senior, is back and was one of the leaders in rebounding last year.

Senior guard Casey Bass returns with her almost eight points a game. Senior Karen Minkalis will continue at guard. Also returning is Felicia Sartin who scored five points a game as a soph.

Amy Goodwin, a 5-6 guard-forward returns for her senior year as does 5-8 freshmen Melissa Frederick. Junior Sheila Belcher, a 5-7 guard, returns.

As for the NWSC, Edge does not see a powerhouse emerging early. "I do not see the champion going 15-0," he said.

Grayslake has a new coach in Paul Missavage and Johnsbury "could be a sleeper" along with Grant.

But don't put those repeat signs away yet, Panther faithful.

"I like our chances. These girls have played a lot of basketball here and have good basketball sense," Edge said.

Panthers go international

There are some new names on the Round Lake boys basketball roster this year. Make that many new names.

"We lost five of our top six players to graduation and that was a lot of scoring," Round Lake boys Coach Bob Ward said.

Ward has been in that situation before, though, as he begins his second decade at Round Lake. He has a 151-87 record.

Four seniors are on the team with playing experience, although for some it was regulated to mostly the junior varsity or when contests were decided last year.

Forward Bob Swanson, 6-3, 190, is back along with 5-11 guard Chris Knauf, 6-5 forward David Bass, and another senior is transfer John Leslie, a 6-4, 185 pound post player.

"All four kids distribute the ball well.

There will not be one featured star or player," Ward said.

The corps group really put a lot of time in during the off-season. This group has probably made more progress than any

Bulldogs aim to shock foes

New Wauconda boys basketball coach Don Pieper promises the Bulldog fans one thing.

The team will be an uptempo style and won't be playing back on its collective heels.

"We want to push the ball upcourt and look for the fast-break or a layup. If we can't get that, we will run into our basic set," Pieper said.

Four returning lettermen are back from a 7-17 squad last year.

Cory Kazimour leads the group and is the team's quickest player, the coach said.

Senior six-foot, four inch center Jeff Schmitts anchors the middle. "He can handle the ball well for a center," Pieper said.

Senior Kurt Van Alstine, 5-10, is expected to see time at guard.

Kurt's brother, Chris, is expected back in December following an injury incurred in football.

Mike Schmitts, Jeff's younger brother, a 6-0 guard, has been the team's best outside shooter.

Jim Schmuck, a 6-3 senior forward, leads the battle in rebounding.

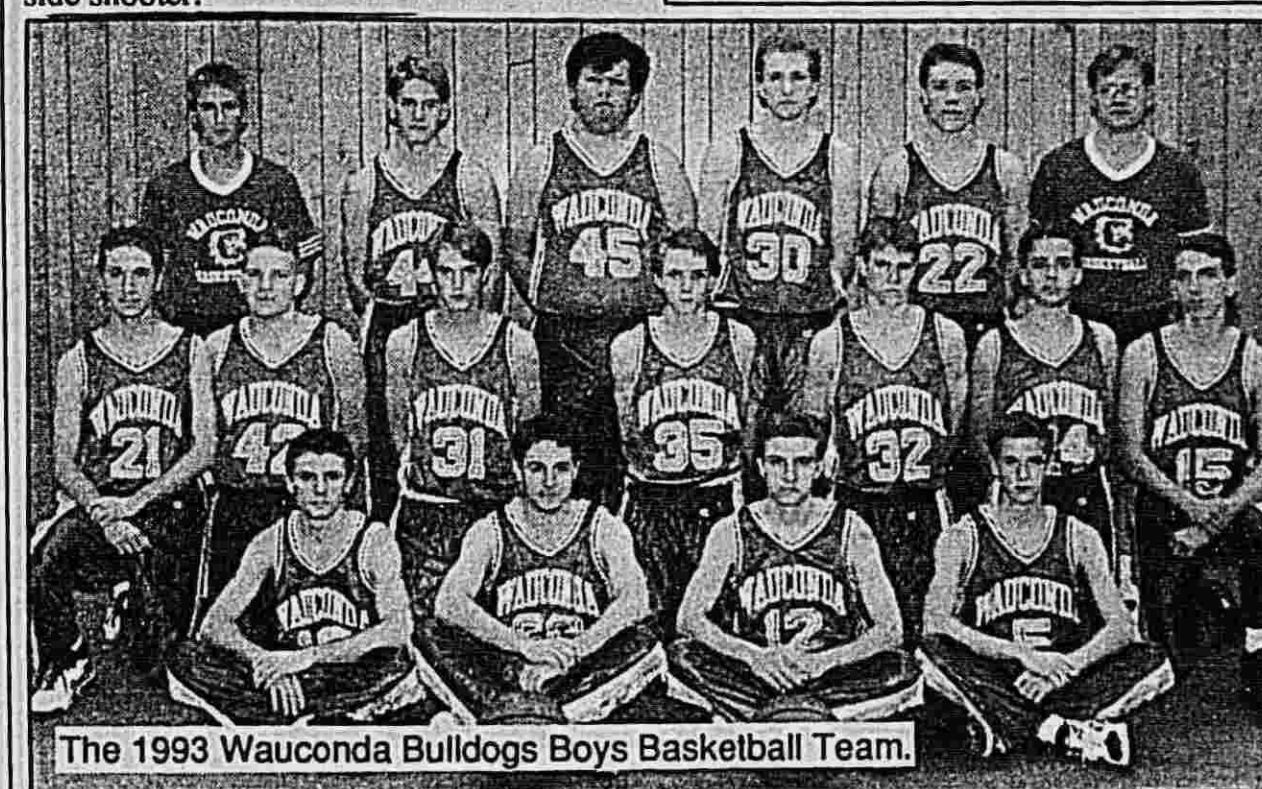

As far as the Northwest Suburban Conference is concerned, Pieper forecasts Grant and Grayslake as odds-on favorites due to returning players.

"We could go out and surprise a few people. We could do that by building the kids' confidence with some early wins," Pieper said.

Mike Morris is Pieper's varsity assistant.

New coach, new approach

Carmel High School will continue a tradition this year; that is, getting used to a new head girls basketball coach.

Larry Whittier of Wildwood and former College of Lake County coach gets the tab this year and is looking to guide the Corsairs back to sectionals. He succeeds Scott Green, who succeeded long-time coach Bob Hauckdahl.

"We are excited about the kids' enthusiasm. We had practice at 6 a.m. today. The kids are picking up the offense and defense," Whittier said.

Whittier termed the 1993 edition of Carmel basketball a good shooting but not a tall team.

Seniors back include: Kathy Berenzer, a 5-8 strong forward. "She can handle the ball and is very unselfish," Whittier said.

Anne Zielinski, a senior, will play post. "She is a good outside shooter and is working on rebounding," Whittier said.

Another center is senior Colleen

Halverson, a 5-10 player who can post-up. Senior Jenny Kocsis, 5-10, gives the Corsairs depth in the middle as the Corsairs readied for the opener against Resurrection.

Junior Erin Potempa will direct the Carmel offense from the point guard role.

Amy DeBoer, who has impressed with her hustle early, is a 5-4 sophomore looking to contribute.

Johnsburg, solid nucleus

It may be human nature to desire to deal with the familiar rather than the new.

That is the case for the Johnsburg High girls basketball team as a new season unfolds.

"We have five returning seniors who saw a lot of playing time last year," Coach Lora Jacobs said.

Karen Stilling, a 5-4 point guard, leads those coming back. She averaged eight points a game as a junior. "She has improved her overall game play," Jacobs said.

Dawn Stewart, a 5-7 guard is back to direct things. "Definitely her vertical jumping ability and overall game play," Jacobs said of Stewart's progress.

Ankle and thumb injuries sidelined Dawn Pelczynski, a junior, last year, but the 5-4 guard is ready this year.

Juniors getting their first taste of varsity competition are: 5-9 Michelle Van Every. Sophomores who could mix it up on the inside are 5-10 Katie Shine and Erin Fahy.

Johnsburg could surprise

The Johnsburg boys basketball outlook for the 1993-94 season may be akin to a "half empty or half-full" situation.

"We have four starters back, but we were 9-16 last year, 4-9 in the Northwest Suburban Conference," Coach Jeff Lewiston said.

The Skyhawks mentor is optimistic though, that seniors and juniors working together may bring the Skyhawks back to contention in the league as opposing coaches are saying they will be.

"I am encouraged by what I have seen so far. We may surprise some people. Our goal is to go to earn some respect," Lewiston said.

Derek DuFour, a six-foot-two senior forward, has been sidelined with a knee injury and will not play until Christmas.

But returning at full strength is Rob Fehling. "He is a better shooter and a good passer in the low post. He can run the floor well for a big man," Lewiston said of the 6-6, 230 pound senior center.

year. "He is one of the best players in the area. We want him to expand his scoring role and step up to take rebounds. He has got to be our leader," Stanczykiewicz said.

Toler, six-foot-five, 220 pounds, will play forward.

Also back is off guard Jeff Christensen, a 6-1, 175 pound senior and junior Rich Petska, a 6-1, 155 pound junior guard who saw varsity action as a sophomore last year. "Point guard is one of the most important positions on the floor. You can't beat varsity experience," the coach said.

Eric Rasmussen, 6-4, 205 pound center is back. "He is not real quick, but can still dribble and take the ball to the hole as a post player," Stanczykiewicz said.

The fifth starting position was up-for-grabs during pre-season drills.

"We have to find a way to score," Stanczykiewicz said.

Looking for that fifth spot are: Brian Ford, a 6-5, 220 pound junior who was a tackle on the football team; Tom Kelly, a 6-2 160 pound senior post player and guard Jeremy Podolski, a 5-11, 155 pound senior.

Adrian Anderson, a 6-0, 165 pound senior guard, had the inside track on the fifth spot before an ankle injury slowed him.

Steady improvement is key for Wauconda girls' hopes

Wauconda's girls basketball team won a regional title last year, and for the Bulldogs to reach that level again this year, it will take steady improvement from young players.

"We are definitely rebuilding. We have three seniors back and no returning starters," Coach Melba Hartman said.

The Bulldogs will be led by the return of senior post-center Debbie O'Callaghan, five-foot, 10 inches. Tricia Bradley, 5-5, is back at guard and Becky Stevig, 5-8, will play post.

The Bulldogs were deciding on the other two spots as the season opener with Mundelein Nov. 18 drew closer. Two sophomores are on the team.

"We will be a junior-based starting team," Hartman said.

Juniors looking to land one of those two starting roles are: Tina Podraza, a 5-7 guard; Jamie Weber, a 5-5 guard; Becky Williamson, a 5-7 swing person and Jamie Stahl, a 5-7 forward; Autumn Lewandowski, a 5-8 player is a forward candidate as is 5-9 Amy Corcelus.

Three seniors are on their first varsity basketball team. Newcomers are: Deliah Hernandez, a 5-8 guard; Laura Andrzejewski, a 5-10 forward-center and Christine Kurban, a 5-10 center.

"Our strength will be our quickness and our ability to look up the floor," Hartman said.

As far as the Northwest Suburban Conference is concerned, Hartman picks Marian Central as the early favorite.

Wauconda, after a battle with Mundelein, is at the Johnsbury Thanksgiving tournament.

Hartman, in her third year at WHS, is assisted by former boys coach Gary Rajkowski. She reports numbers are up at all levels.

Strike or no, '93 Warhawks prepare to contend in NSC

North Chicago shocked some opponents en route to a .500 North Suburban Conference basketball season last year.

In the process, they earned the respect of this year's front-runners.

"Don't overlook North Chicago," Mundelein Coach Dennis Kessel said.

The Warhawks are under the direction of second-year coach Joe Walls. The Warhawks continued to practice while district teachers were on strike.

"We had to play through that. We're prepared to be back, we expect to be back and take it one day at a time. If the game was tomorrow, we would be ready," Walls said.

"I keep it out of my mind in practice," Montel Dixon said.

"We have a good group of juniors who played sophomore ball and had a better than adequate season with a 22-4 record," Walls said.

Joe Walls Jr., who was hurt last year, returns as a 6-foot, 1-inch guard. Colby Long, a 6-0 forward is back, as well as 6-4 Tyrone Whittington and 6-2 Rassad Lindo.

Willie St. George leads the juniors. At 6-5, 195 pounds, he is expected to be the Warhawks go-to player in the middle.

Anthony Vernado, 6-1 guard-forward, Jewell James, 5-11 guard and Devi Pittman, 5-11 guard, also return.

Walls said the second year has been much smoother than the rookie season at this time. "We have more than enough turnout at every level and all had winning seasons."

"We have had the opportunity to get my philosophy introduced and it is a matter of repeating what they learned last year and making a few changes. They understand me a lot more and know what to expect," Walls said. "We are very optimistic this year."

Whittington and St. George could lead the inside play.

The Warhawks will use the man-to-man defense.

"We believe that, in order for us to be successful, we have to employ an excellent half-court man-to-man defense. We are not afraid to pick it up full-court if need be."

(Continued from page 9c) other group from one season to the next," Ward said. "They played a lot and got better."

Round Lake was in contention for a higher status in the Northwest Suburban Conference, but lost four of its last five games, including two on the year to Grayslake, in a 14-12 season.

"Defense will be a real key for us," Ward said.

Juniors looking to contribute include: 5-10 point guard Jay Wilcox, 5-9 guard Bill Zibell and 6-3 forward Ray Muellemann.

A sophomore is on the varsity squad. Brett White, a 6-3 post player, played on the sophs as a freshman. "He had a good off-season," Ward said.

The Panthers have an international flavor as Marko Bukovac, a 6-4 center, is from Croatia. "He is a great addition for us team wise," Ward said.

I thought planning a funeral ahead of time was crazy. Then Jim died.

Since he had insisted, we fortunately had our plans made. We even had money put aside through a program at the funeral home. That sure made it easier for me to begin getting things together and to appreciate the many friends who came to call. There were so many other pressures that it helped not to plan a funeral. Take it from experience planning ahead is a good idea.

If you would like to know more about planning ahead, call or write us for our free booklet on funeral planning.

How To Survive The Job Search

By Nancy Sakol

G: Dear...Search: I wanted to write to you and thank you for your information last month on how to obtain information on writing your own resume. It was very informative and I am pleased to say that I finally completed mine to a point where I feel comfortable with the outcome.
That is, except for one part...my objective. A friend of mine while looking over my finished product mentioned to me that they felt I should change my objective. I have enclosed it for your review. Please offer some suggestions if you will.
Thank you in advance. R.D. - Lake Bluff

A: Dear R.D. Objectives if written improperly can harm rather than help you. I will list a few objectives actually on the resumes of persons actively seeking employment whereby we have recommended their alteration. 1. Objective:
"To obtain experience in management and retail sales". This is all right for someone with the experience in either retail or management. In this case, however, the applicant has worked as a general office clerk for six months with no college experience or experience in either management or retail. 2. Objective: "I am seeking a position of responsibility with an honest company". Why...have you worked for a dishonest company? 3. Objective: "An initial position in Marketing or Advertising, with opportunities for growth and possible travel". Nix on the travel...not necessary to have in the objective. It makes it appear as though you are restless and are not one to be tied down to an office position.
Without the "travel" would be all right except it does not belong on a resume of someone who has a computer programmer certificate whose only work history was a sales clerk in a liquor store and a cook at a restaurant. The point is not to focus objective so as to knock yourself right out of the running for any position. For example: The college graduate with a degree in accounting who has worked part time as an accounts payable clerk has an objective that reads: "To find a challenging position in the field of accounting which utilizes my organizational skills". Simple and focused. The telemarketing representative whose objective reads: "To obtain a challenging position that will utilize my oral and written communication skills"...again, simple and focused.
My advice is to review your objective. You're in the right direction with just a bit of modification. Hope this helps!

Note: Nancy Sakol is a licensed personnel professional and President of Superior Personnel in Gurnee.
Letters can be sent to Nancy at 5101 Washington St., Gurnee, IL 60031.

Robertson, defense continue quest to state

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

One may forgive Andrew Robertson for feeling more than a little popped after Saturday's 19-10 football quarterfinal win over Conant.

"I was a little gassed," the senior running back stand-out admitted.

That's okay. Okay when you just had a day with touchdown runs of 27 and two yards, gaining 180 including a run of more than 12 straight carries.

"The offensive line was amazing. We do the same things. All I know, this is a higher plateau. We're going for all the marbles now, we just want to win games," Robertson said.

"He is just a superb individual," Coach Dale Christensen said.

The Wildcats trailed 10-7 at halftime, but came out with the Robertson attack out of the I-formation. Now they are preparing for their 13th straight win and a shot in the state final at Illinois State University.

"I thought we were flat the first half. We kept our focus and that is exactly what we did," Robertson said.

The Wildcats, who square off against Loyola Nov. 20 at 1 p.m. in Wilmette, moved the ball through the air on their first score. QB Chris Fulbright completed a 21-yard pass to Bob Paulson and Robertson showed the Cougars what was to come on a 14-yard gain. Two plays later, on a third-and-one, Robertson took the Fulbright pitch all the way into the end zone. He added the extra point.

The defense then had to overcome what Coach Christensen referred to as his error when a backwards pass gave the Conant squad the ball at its 30. The defense held.

The second quarter belonged to the Conant offense. Schrader found Bryan Johnsen open for an eight-yard TD pass and a field goal put the Wildcats behind.

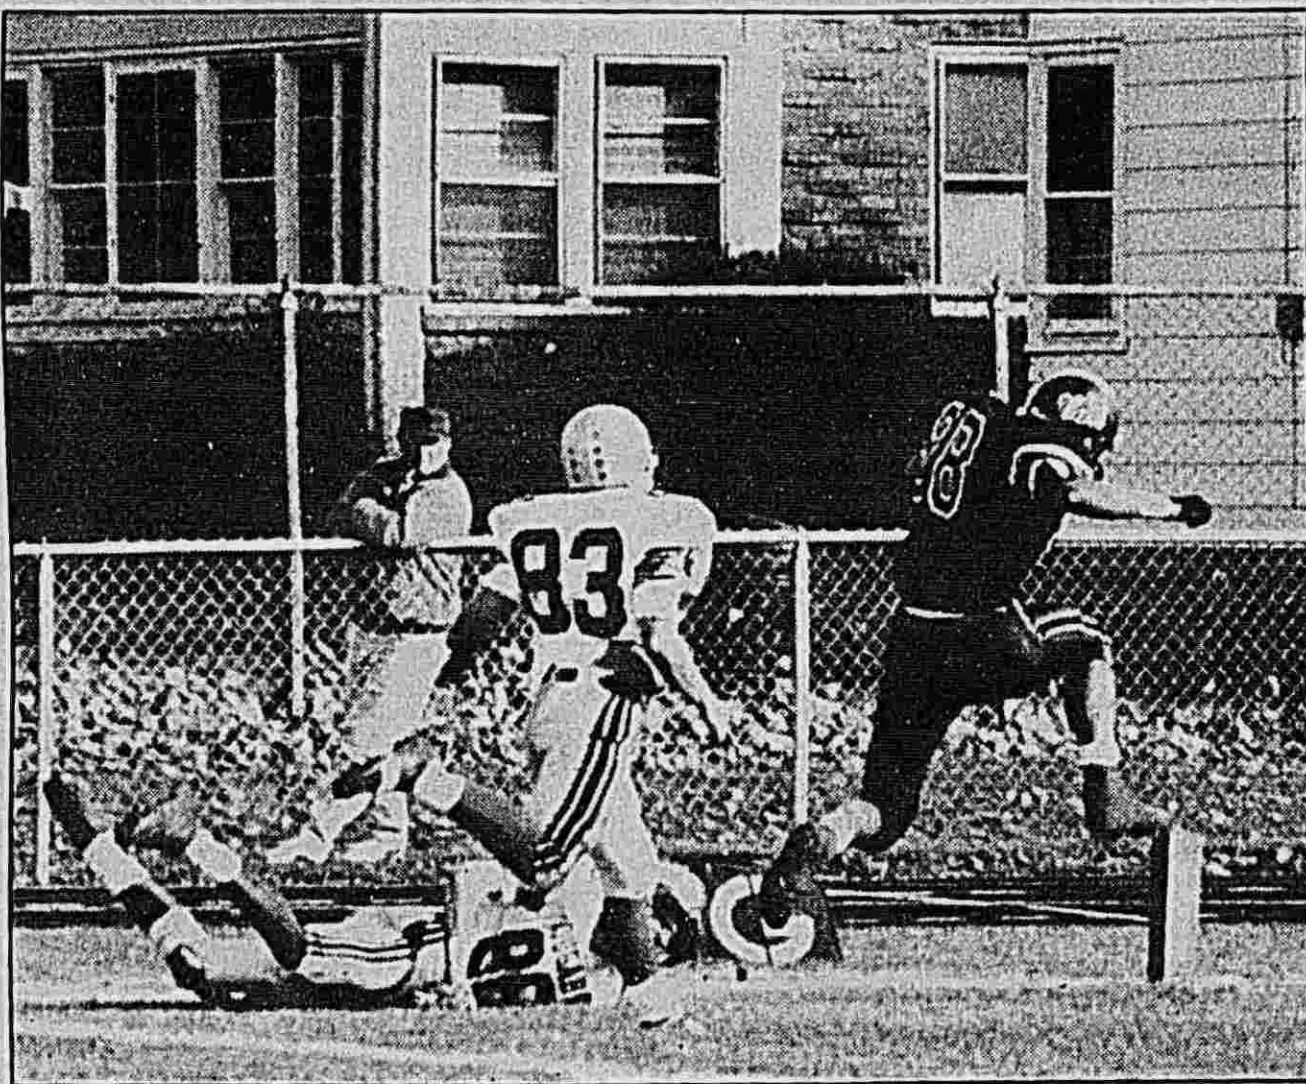

But Robertson's relentless running, which included one for 48 yards, led to a TD run from two yards out with 7:01 left in the third.

Fulbright went to the air for the score five minutes later. He connected with Mark Russert for 42 yards.

Andrew Brandon recovered a fumble and Jim Moras had an interception to snuff the Cougar hopes.

It was time for the trophy presentation, peaceful celebration to begin but the Wildcats know they still have work to do.

"Coach Christensen keeps us focused in a positive way," Moras said. "He tells us this is not the most important thing in the world."

Buford's tips helps 'Cats punter gain edge on foes

A former Chicago Bear punter may have indirectly played a role in helping Libertyville reach the state Class 6A semifinals.

LHS punter Mike Mucha gained tips from Maury Buford. The LHS punting game bested Conant's in the 19-10 Wildcat win Saturday.

"Coach Kuceyeski (Randy) knows him," Mucha said of the Buford connection.

Mucha punted four times for 111 yards with an average of 27.9 as the Wildcats won for the 12th straight time. This was into and with a swirling wind at LHS. He had been averaging 30 to 35 yards a boot.

"It is just like catching a pass," Mucha said of one snap which went astray.

"The punting game was very significant," LHS Coach Dale Christensen said.

Mucha replaced Andrew Robertson as the punter mid-way through last season. "Mucha is a real good athlete who adjusts well and he has a good snapper in Matt Fredrick," Coach Christensen said.

Robertson probably never thought about his former punting days this windy Saturday before a standing-room only crowd. He was too busy scoring touchdown runs of 27 and two yards in the biggest game at LHS in decades.

Mucha also played well defensively, snaring an interception off Conant quarterback Rob Schader. He replaced Reed Christensen, who was out due to illness. Christensen is expected back for the 1 p.m. semi-final game Nov. 20 against Loyola Academy in Wilmette.

The newcomer to the Wildcat defense, Danny Nikolich, a 6-2, 190 pound junior, was a part of 11 tackles.

"It shows we have team depth," senior Todd Gierthy, in on 10 tackles himself, said.

CLC mens hoops showing good signs in initial tourney

College of Lake County's men's basketball team was slowed before the tip-off tournament due to injuries, but there was more than a glimmer of hope for the CLC faithful.

The Lancers were 0-3 for their home tourney, coming closest to victory in a 77-70 loss to Truman in the final game. CLC hosts South Suburban at 3 p.m. Nov. 20.

Nelson Anderson had a broken wrist and Robert Kindle's injury put both on the shelf for four weeks before Friday's opening night. Rocky Campanella, a Carmel grad, missed time due to a knee injury and Chris Vaughn of Grayslake had off-season surgery.

"We're small, so we have to do the other things well," Coach Bruce Smith said.

"They all showed signs of potential. We just have to work with them," Smith said.

Poor start dooms CHS

Carmel High School's girls basketball team dropped its season opener Tuesday, falling to Resurrection 63-39.

Carmel was led by Jamie McGill with nine points and Colleen Halverson had eight.

Carmel trailed by 10 after one, but cut the gap to two at halftime.

"We found out we could play on the same level with them," Carmel Coach Larry Whittier said. The game was Whittier's first as head coach.

Carmel hosts Queen of Peace Nov. 20 at 11:30 a.m. in Mundelein.

Someone who has yet to play organized college basketball before the weekend and a freshmen from Warren led the way against Truman. Steve Bickerwert, a six-foot-one inch forward, scored 18 points, Justin Hanlin 16 and Jerry Anderfuren added 10 in the third loss.

Smith saw areas of improvement over losses to Parkland and Highland. "We cut down on our turnovers. We had 27 against Truman. We were in the 30's against Parkland and Highland," he said.

CLC fell 89-54 to powerful Parkland. Bickerwert had 16 points and Kindle 11.

CLC had to overcome poor shooting at the game's outset, missing 11 of 14 shots but only losing by three points.

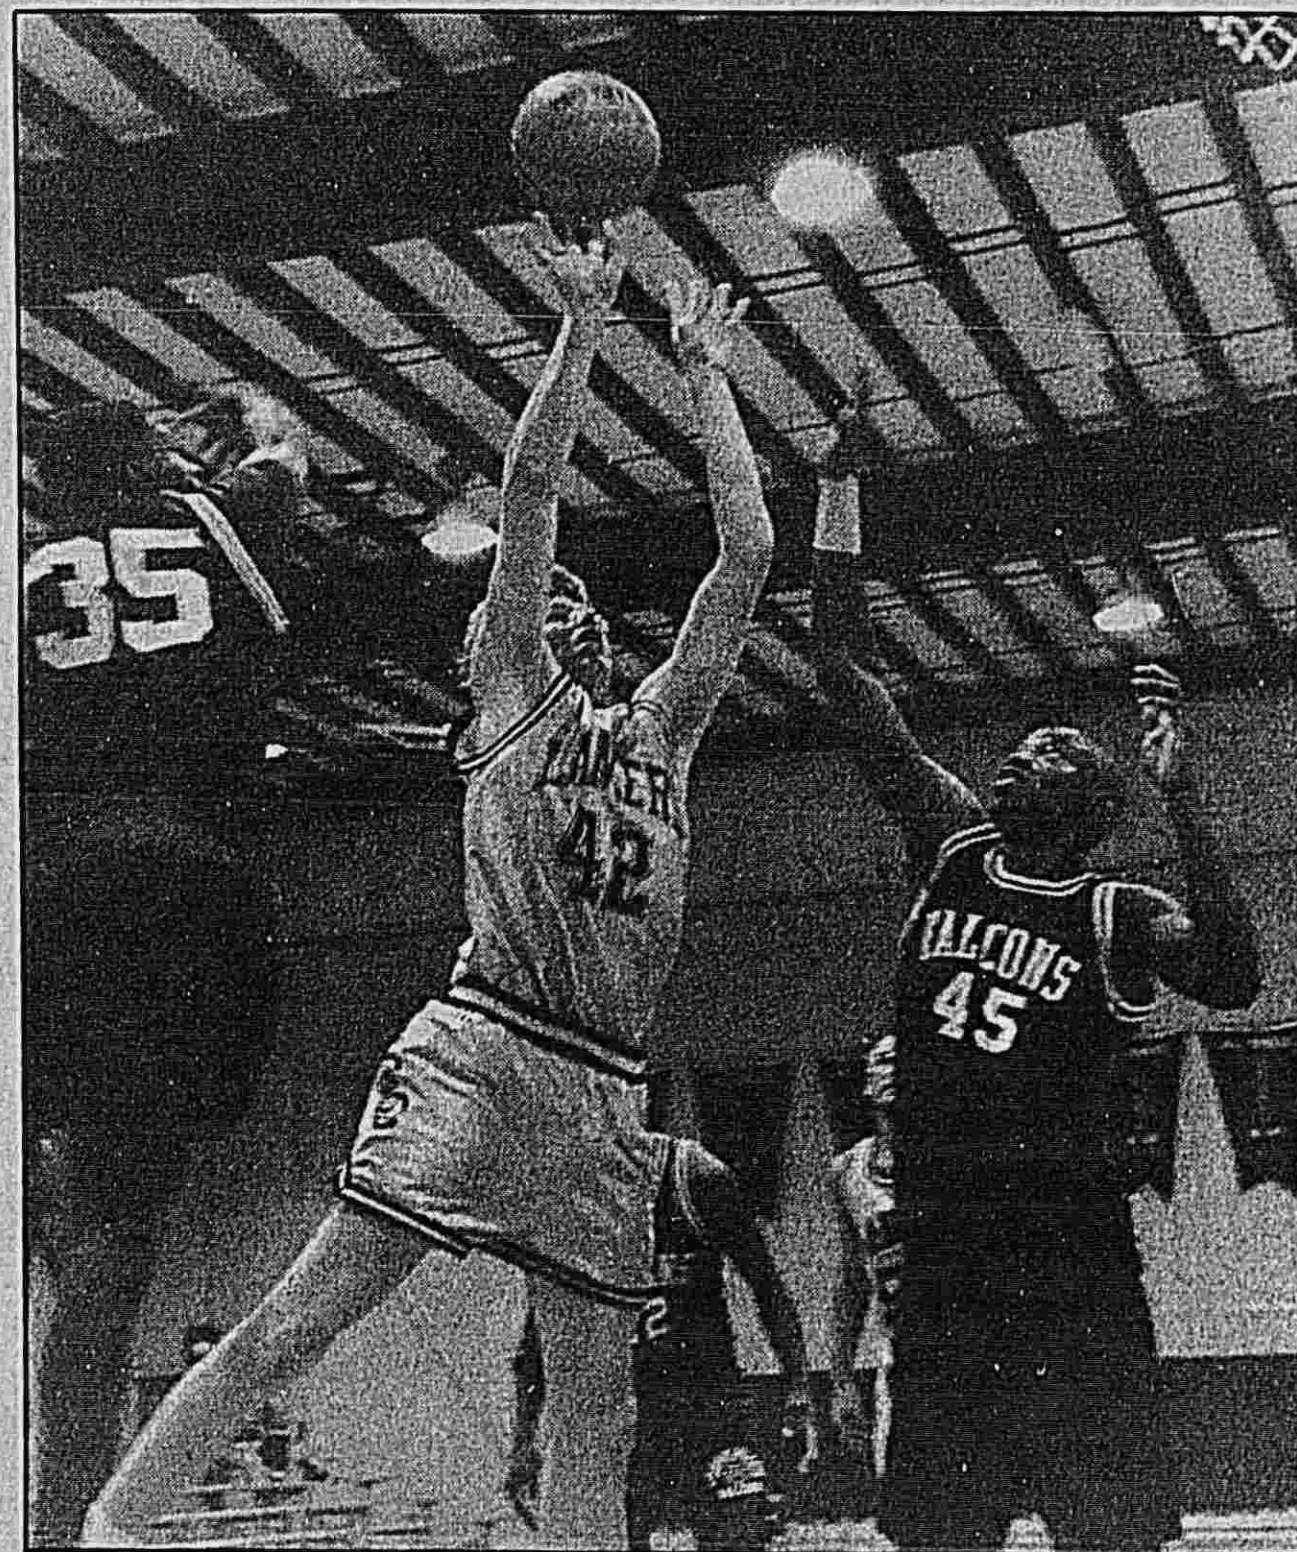

Truman increased the margin to nine before the Hanlin show started. The 6-1, 180 pounder scored six of the team's next 10 points in trimming the team's margin to three.

CLC gained a lead early in the second half when Anderfuren sank a basket and Ramsey Williams did the same. Hanlin tied the game at 51 on a nifty almost coast-to-coast move.

Libertyville grad Mike Rudd gave CLC its last tie of the game at 6:06 left.

Truman controlled the tempo after that, working the ball into 6-5 Darryl Thomas. Bickerwert brought the home team to within two points, but Truman made six-of-seven free throws.

Following the non-conference tilt with South Suburban, CLC is at the Harper Thanksgiving tourney Nov. 26 and 27.

College of Lake County's Rocco Campanella splits Truman defenders Parris Flemming (35) and Ron Brown (45) en route to two points. CLC lost tip-off classic game 77-70. The Lancers, 0-3 for tourney, host South Suburban at 3 p.m. Nov. 20. — Photo by Bill Carey.

Enigma starts indoor soccer season with win

This week marked the start of the indoor soccer season for three of the Lindenhurst girls traveling soccer teams.

The U-19 Enigma started their indoor season by beating Glenview United at Soccer Enterprises in Highland Park by a score of 6-0. The Enigma goals were scored by Coleen Hardy, Jaimee Rinehart, Pam Brown, Tanya Wieval, Kelly Landgren and Sarah Ayre. Angel Giangiori had the shutout in goal.

The U-15 Blitz, playing in a U-16 division, took a tough 5-4 loss against NSA Lightning. The Blitz battled back from a 3-1 Lightning lead to tie the game at three all, and came back to tie again at four all, but let one goal sneak in late in the game for the defeat. Blitz goals were scored by Becca Bleyer (2), Carrie Gofron (1), and Stacie Morley (1). Assists were given to Erin Sparkman, Stacie Morley and Carrie Gofron. The Blitz play their games at Poplar Creek Sports Centre in Hoffman Estates.

The U-13 Power met the Glenview Stars at Soccer Enterprises in Highland Park and suffered at 3-2 loss. The Power had a strong showing for the first game of the season. Goals were scored by Sarah Richardson and Maureen Moran.

Lindenhurst traveling team finishes outdoor season

This was the final weekend of the outdoor season for four of the five girl's traveling teams. The U-11 Lightning completed their season last weekend.

The U-19 Enigma tied Park Ridge 2-2 at Polley Field to finish with a record of 7-2-1. The two Enigma goals were scored by Pam Brown and Tanya Wieval. Goalkeeper Angel Giangiori kept the game close by making two nice saves on breakaway attempts. The Enigma is coached by Jim Rinehart and Dan Kwiatkowski.

The U-15 Blitz met Rockford United at Polley Field and suffered a disappointing loss 2-1. The Blitz finished with a 5-2-3 record in the U-15 A Division. The only Blitz goal was scored by Becca Bleyer on a nice pass from Stacie Morley (assist). Other strong performances, Susan Woodruff, Carrie Gofron, Tammy Podborny, Jessica Haynes, and Allison Earl (who has had a great season in goal). The Blitz is coached by Scott Bleyer and Carol Wright.

The U-13 Power traveled to Glen Ellyn to face the Lakers and lost a tough one 1-0. The Power's record of 5-2-3 earned them a second place tie. Weather and field conditions made play difficult. In the second half the Power out-shot the Lakers 30-2, but couldn't put one in the net. Standout players were Nicci Estep, Jourdan Phillips, Teri LaRoche, Sarah Richardson and Jamie Wismer. The Power is coached by Ron Giangiori and Craig Fenters.

Smokers get help during Great American smokeout

The Great American Smokeout, where smokers are urged to quit smoking for at least 24 hours, will be celebrated on Nov. 18 this year. Here in Lake County, representatives from the Lake County Health Department will be on hand at the County of Lake Building lobby, 18 N. County St., Waukegan, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to help people quit.

"I can't stress strongly enough the importance of quitting smoking," said Dale Galassie, Executive Director of the Lake County Health Department. "It is the number one preventable cause of death and disease in the United States."

During this time, you can take part in the following activities:

- Take the Health Department's "How Addicted Are You?" quiz, to find out how dependent on nicotine you really are.
- Receive a package of information including different types of stop smoking programs that are offered throughout the County.
- Sign a pledge to stop smoking for the day of the Smokeout.
- See a display of what smoking does not only to your lungs, but to other organs such as your heart and stomach.

Galassie stated that the Health Department's goal during the Smokeout is to reduce the number of tobacco users, especially youths, and increase public awareness of the importance of reducing tobacco use as a vital component of health care reform. "Many people know what smoking does to your lungs, but many don't realize how it also ruins other internal organs, as well as harming the health of those around you," he said. Galassie urged smokers to take a few minutes to visit the Health Department's booth at the County Building on Nov. 18 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. "The Smokeout is a great first step to giving up smoking. As the slogan goes, 'Just do it.' Quit smoking."

The "myth of the superwoman" is really no myth at all. Many women juggle career, family and social life and are, often, quite good at maintaining this.

But, what happens when female health problems threaten to upset the balance? How does that fit into the decisions about their health and well-being. The following will help to explain these innovative procedures:

Laparoscopy or pelviscopy. A thin, lighted telescope is inserted into the abdomen enabling the doctor to see inside the pelvis. This may be done for diagnostic or operative purposes.

- Endometriosis, a chronic painful condition of the pelvic region, can be treated.
- Ovarian cysts and fibroid tumors can be removed.

Endometrial ablation. This endoscopic procedure is used to remove the uterine lining when indicated for abnormal bleeding.

Reversal of tubal ligation. When a woman desires more children, the ends of fallopian tubes are joined together in an attempt to reverse tubal ligation.

Laparoscopically assisted vaginal hysterectomy. Through a scope, the surgeon views the uterus, detaches it abdominally and removes it vaginally.

FEMALE PROBLEMS.

picture? The truth is, it doesn't. Many women feel that their condition is something they have to live with because they cannot find the time for traditional surgery. Or they are unaware of current advances in treatments.

Menstrual cramps to menopause.

Today, laparoscopic surgery at Victory Memorial Hospital is helping hundreds of women suffering from pelvic pain, infertility, endometriosis, fibroid tumors, ovarian cysts, and other chronic conditions. With 3-4 tiny "band-aid" incisions, 1-2 days in the hospital and recovery usually within a week, laparoscopic surgery provides a minimally invasive approach that is revolutionizing surgery.

Laparoscopic lingo.

It's important that the women of today make informed and educated

- Adhesions may be removed.
- Biopsies can be taken.
- Infertility problems may be diagnosed and treated.
- Relief may be provided for menopausal problems caused by several conditions.

Hysteroscopy. A diagnostic test using a scope to view the lining of the uterus and entrance to the fallopian tubes.

Ask your doctor.

If you think you may be a candidate for laparoscopic surgery, contact your doctor to discuss your options. You'll be glad you did.

Heights standoff ends without major injury

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

After a nearly 90-minute standoff, a suspect was captured by police but not before he attempted to sexually assault his former girlfriend in Round Lake Heights.

Allen Chapman, 30, Buffalo Grove, was held without bond this week after the incident on Friday morning. There was an order of protection forbidding him near her, but it was ignored. Fortunately for all concerned, the standoff ended safely unlike the case of Leslie Peace who killed his former girlfriend in Waukegan.

Apparently Chapman broke open the back door in the house of his girlfriend Judy Sultan holding a 45-caliber semi-automatic pistol and ordered her to shoot him. She refused and he forced her in the bedroom and attempted to sexually assault her. A struggle ensued, he bit her in the nose and she was able to break free and call police from a neighbor's house, according to Round Lake Heights Police Chief James Smith.

Police arrived on the scene and met Sultan who informed them her six-year-old son and four-year-old daughter were still in the house. Police from Round Lake Heights and Round Lake Beach secured the perimeter around the house. Smith called additional reinforcements and a hostage negotiation team was called in.

At about 1:33 a.m. one of the children ran out of the house to the police. Soon Officer Fred Usmiller of Round Lake Beach Police, saw Chapman and asked for backup, three other officers attempted to arrest Chapman, according to Smith.

The officers ordered him to drop his gun which was pointed at his head. They were able to get close enough to wrestle the gun away from him and take him into custody.

"I am extremely pleased it didn't turn out like the Peace incident," Smith said. "I credit the officers on the scene and especially the three officers that arrested him. Anytime the bad guy gets caught and nobody gets hurt then I am happy."

Chapman was never in the house during the siege. He was hiding in leaves behind the police perimeter.

Chapman is facing multiple charges and the possibility of at least 20 years in prison on the various charges against him if convicted. The charges include aggravated sexual abuse, aggravated battery, armed violence, unlawful restraint, battery, unlawful use of a weapon and violation of an order of protection. He is scheduled to appear in court on Nov. 24.

In subsequent investigation it was revealed Chapman had seven outstanding warrants in Lake County. He had two in Round Lake Heights stemming from an incident in June of this year when he was arrested for domestic violence and criminal trespass. Sultan obtained an order of protection after the incident.

Education, open trade both worth striving for: Braun

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Illinois Senator Carol Moseley-Braun brought an upbeat message, one which included support of the North American Free Trade Agreement and an endorsement of quality education for all, to Lake County Friday night.

Moseley-Braun, a Democrat and the first Afro-American female Senator, addressed more than 200 persons gathered at the Marriott Resort in Lincolnshire for the annual Lake County Urban League dinner.

"The Clinton administration came in with an agenda for change and it seemed like they wanted to do it at once. This is a busy time in Washington," Moseley-Braun said.

Moseley-Braun told the audience this is a time of growing racism on one hand, but one of tolerance and "willingness to come together and celebrate our unity, not being divided into groups where a forum for hatred splits us apart. It is simple mathematics. Add forces work together; subtract forces that work apart.

Education, she said, is a common thread and should be available to all, despite the common popularity of "voucher" concept.

"If it is a privileged benefit, then give the voucher and say, 'get the best education money can buy'. Education transcends a privileged benefit. It is a common good so equal access," she said.

The future competitiveness of the United States as a nation, the level of crime, the level of Democracy are all factors in keeping quality education accessible, daughter of a Chicago policeman said.

"We have to give our young people the tools to make adjustments and face change with hope and optimism," Moseley-Braun said.

She said the local favor of the NAFTA property tax is the worst way to finance education.

agreement, which was still a few days away from a vote in the House of Representatives as she spoke.

How did the custom of cheering and cheerleaders start in football? When the first intercollegiate game was played in 1869 between Princeton and Rutgers, Princeton players got the idea of trying to upset Rutgers players by yelling every time Rutgers put the ball in play. But there was one thing wrong with this plan. Although the yelling did upset Rutgers, at the same time, it bothered the Princeton players because they had to use too much effort in yelling and it distracted them from their own play. So, for the second game against Rutgers, a Princeton man got the great idea of having some of the students along the sideline do the yelling instead of the players. A few students were chosen and taught what to yell and when to yell. And that's how the tradition was born.

Here's the story of one of the most amazing football players of all-time. This man was so outstanding that he became the only player in football history ever named All-America at 2 different positions the SAME YEAR! His name: Bronko Nagurski. He played fullback on offense and tackle on defense for the University of Minnesota in 1929 and was selected All-America at BOTH positions.
